Grand Jury Orders DA to Collect Housing Authority Bill

The Contra Costa County Grand Jury orodered District Attorney Francis Collins to collect all monies payable to the Contra Costa Housing Authority "by the end of the year," according to Edward Valentino, grand jury foreman.

Two commissioners and one ex-commissioner were ordered by the past grand jury last June to pay back some $1500 in over-drawn expense money.

VALENTINO REPORTED that the money had not completely been paid back at 4 per cent interest and said the jury ordered the collection to be made by the district attorney.

Last June, the 1957-58 grand jury ordered that the overdrawn expense money which had been used by the commissioners on junkets to the east coast and other portions of the country be returned within 30 days.

An arrangement was drawn up by Collins with the commissioners that they would repay the money in monthly installments at four per cent interest.

THE SUN learned after a brief investigation that the bulk of the money had not been repaid by early in October.

At that time, only $249.78 had been paid back to the county agency out of a total due of $1578.80.

Valentino made no comment as to what measures would be taken if the entire amouont was not repaid by the commissioners.

VALENTINO STATED, however, that only two have any money left to pay.

"One man has paid the entire amount which he owed, another has made substantial payments and the third is quite delinquent."

Valentino did not state who had paid and who had not.

THE THREE MEN involved in the repayment order are Geroud Gill, who was to pay some $685; James Woods a retired commissioner, who was to have paid $409, and Edward Nichols who had an overdraft of $485.55.

Collins will report back to the Contra Costa Grand Jury January 7 on his progress in the collection of the overdrafts, Valentino commented.

Collins' term of ooffice will expire January 5, but the report will not be heard until January 7.

JOHN A. NEJEDLY will be present at the next meeting of the grand jury.

The Contra Costa Housing Authority is, in part, a portion of the executive branch oof the federal government.

It is under the direction of the Federal Home and Housing Agency and the Public Housing Administration.

No local tax monies are used for the operation of the authority, since it is supported by rents paid by occupants of low rent housing areas.

FEDERAL MONIES are used, however, for the administration of the local housing agency.

At present, commissioners are appointed by supervisors to serve four year terms on the commission.

The past Contra Costa Grand Jury in its report noted that perhaps the entire housing authority should be placed under the direct supervision of the county.

Local 'Teens Deplore 'Crashers'

Youngsters Tell Parents, Officer How They Feel

By BILL HINES

A cop and about 30 kids got together this week in Miramonte High School library to talk over "party crashing," curfew laws, post-game dances, and other problems.

The "cop" was Bela L. Clark, County Juvenile Control Bureau chief.

The "kids" were teenagers chosen from the Miramonte student body on the basis of leadership qualities.

ONLOOKERS, who occasionally joined spirited discussions, included a few mothers and fathers, faculty representatives, and members of the group sponsoring the get-together, the teenage code committee of the Miramonte Parents Club.

Clark acted as moderator for the young men and women who sat circling a big oak table, with agendas, pencils, scratch paper, and their own ideas all handy.

Talks waxed warmest on "party crashers," a topic which bobbed up during discussions on whether teenagers should bring their friends home.

"I think it's a good idea to let your parents get acquainted with your friends," said Skip. "And once in a while it's all right to bring a boy home for overnight, or a girl home for overnight." (Laughter, which didn't embarrass Skip a bit.)

"IF YOU'RE AFRAID to have your parents meet your friends, you ought to be afraid to associate with them," Mike interjected.

A mother broke in: "We used to live in a small town. Orinda may be a small town, but in many ways it's become more like a metropolitan community.

"When I was a girl, my parents and I and most other families went to all the same places at the same time. There were always dances and other public affairs that appealed to both young and old. It wasn't that our parents were there to keep an eye on us, either.

"When we have some young people in the house now, and I stick my head in the living room for just a minute, right away I hear, 'Get back in the kitchen, Ma!'

"I THINK LOTS of times youngsters would actually like older people if they got a chance to know them."

Barb brought up the subject of boys who "crash" parties, and noted that she never has any trouble with them at affairs to which she's sent out written invitations.

"I haven't had many parties," Jack commented. "In fact, I had just one all last year at my house. Word got around I was having a party, and some guys I barely knew came.

"I thought they were okay, though, and didn't pay much attention to what was going on.

"After they'd gone, I found chocolate ice cream smeared all over the davenport and cigarette burns in the rug. It was a mess. I just don't dare ask my parents to let me have a party again."

BILL: "The only times I've seen trouble at parties is where people don't come in couples. With couples, you never have any trouble at all. But when guys just stray in, then there's trouble."

Sue: "That's right. When I go to parties the guys who drink beer and stuff are always by themselves. If you have couples, the boys have girls they have to get home, and they act more responsible."

Jim: "When you invite people, you ought to know the kind of people you're inviting. That's what really determines the kind of party you're going to have."

Moderator Clark: "I know of one party 160 kids crashed."

General murmurs of dismay, comments: "That's a war." "That's right!" "That's really a rumble."

CLARK: "It seems to me that the problems in not sending invitations, and in going to parties when you're not invited. Personally, I wouldn't want to go to a party if I wasn't invited."

Sue: "Oh, you wouldn't feel that way if you were out with a bunch of guys and started talking about how there was a party somewhere. You'd probably just say, 'Okay, let's go — boy, what a blast!' "

A mother: "If it's an informal, non-couple party, you as an adult can't count noses every minute to be sure there's no one there who hasn't been invited.

"The answer would be for youngsters to learn to say hello to the adult hostess when they come, and say goodbye to her when they leave. They just haven't been taught etiquette."

Clark: "Maybe if parents and teenagers sat down and planned a party in advance there'd be no problems and no trouble."

MOTHER: "I don't see why they can't do something besides play records and dance. The old parlor games are fun — like spin the bottle."

(General laughter, cries of "Oh, no! NOT spin the bottle!")

Mike: "A parent and a person giving a party has some responsibility. People crashing a party don't care about etiquette. If I had 160 crashers, I'd call the cops."

Jack: "If I just tell a few people, 'I'm going to have a party,' why everybody comes. The best kind of party is to invite all your best friends, just the ones you really like.

"Kids could stop crashers. The parents themselves could. But when they ring the bell, why, they just let them in, as if they were afraid not to, or something."

SUE: "A lot depends on what you tell the girls to wear . . ."

Clark: "That's right. The atmosphere you yourself create helps to determine the kind of party you'll have."

Don: "We've got a lot of games at my house, like ping-pong, horseshoes, darts, tether ball . . . Of course, if it's a big party, you can't all play ping-pong, but it's a lot of fun for a small group.

"Why, there were a couple of girls once I don't think had ever seen a horseshoe before, and they spent all evening playing, and they couldn't even throw a shoe from one peg to the other."

A mother: "How about this thing of going to two or three parties in one night? They stay for a while, then just peel off and go to another party."

TIM: "Once I sent out invitations. They said no drinking, no smoking. Otherwise, just don't come. It was a good party."

Barb: "When boys crash slumber parties lots of times it's the girls' own fault. A girl deliberately lets the word get around that she's going to have a slumber party—and she knows what's going to happen.

"The boys do crash it."

Clark: "It's things like this that give young people a bad name. You have a selling job to do. You can help us. You can help overcome the bad reputation you don't deserve."

CLARK: "I'd like to say something about curfew. A lot of people don't seem to realize that we do have a curfew law in this county.

"It's 10 p.m. for any minor under 18 any night except Fridays and Saturdays. Then it's 12 midnight IF the minor has been attending an adult-sponsored activity.

"The curfew is really an anti-loitering ordinance. When kids get into trouble, it's really after 10 o'clock."

Mike: "I think the curfew is like the speed laws. You go a few miles over the limit and nobody's going to arrest you if you're driving carefully and don't have an accident.

"And that's like the curfew. If you're behaving yourself, I don't

Grand Jury Gives Nod To Search

The Contra Costa County Grand Jury issued a vote of confidence Wednesday afternoon for the sheriff's men conducting the investigation into the murder of William "Roy" Anderson.

Edward Valentino, grand jury foreman, said:

"THE CONTRA COSTA County Grand Jury feels that the investigation of the Anderson murder case is in the hands of capable deputies and the State Attorney General's office has reported that the case is being handled in a professional manner.

"Should there be any interference in the conduct of the case we insist that the county district attorney's office take over."

Working on the baffling murder of the Orindan at present are Inspector Ray Stoffels, Inspector Norman Wilson, Detectives John Coulson, H. E. "Bud" Hobert, Louis Skuce and Walter Traywick, Edward Stockman and Charles Myers.

LEE GALLAMORE, undersheriff, noted that the State Attorney General's office will no longer be involved in the case unless Stoffels and his men request assistance.

Working on "sidelights" of the case and "new information" is Sheriff Harry A. Brown.

Woolsey Parking Problem Solved, Chamber Learns

Directors of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce were informed Tuesday noon at Casa Orinda that Leon Woolsey will have no difficulty in meeting parking regulations for his proposed medical building.

John Ogden reported that Woolsey will be able to furnish 50 parking stalls which was a requirement asked for by the chamber before granting a variance permit by the county planning commission.

IN OTHER business, Bill Pope stated that Christmas tree lights have been installed and are in working order. The Orinda Garden Club is going ahead with the trimming of the tree, he commented.

Proposed, but tabled, was a suggestion to erect a master date calendar for Orinda.

OGDEN PROPOSED that the chamber maintain a calendar of all events in the community.

Merle Brown suggested that the bulletin board at the library be used for such a purpose and that library personnel keep the calendar up.

Underwood commented that most events in the community are of a social nature rather than business and this activity would not really be in the sphere of chamber business.

The chamber voted to postpone the December 16 meeting until January 7.

School District Population Leaps; New Schoool OK'd

Orinda Union Elementary School District population has leaped to the record high of 3028, Superintendent Joseph Sheaff reported to members of the school board Monday.

Last month total school population was 3007; exactly one year ago it was 2689.

ORINDA SCHOOLS have felt the pressure of "one of the largest increases, percentagewise, of any school district in the county," Sheaff declared.

A contract with Ed Eoff Construction Co. for a $111,455 addition to Glorietta School, the third addition, was signed. Allocations have been approved by the state board. The Eoff firm built Pine Grove and Sleepy Hollow schools.

Sheaff announced that the application for the Inland Valley School, to be built on a site off Ivy Drive near Rheem, has been approved by the Allocations Board in the sum of $634,489 for overall cost, including site development, construction and furnishings.

A BID ON the first part of this project, the grading, of $142,000 by Gallagher & Burke, Oakland, is now being considered by the Allocations Board.

Hersey Inspection Bureau was appointed to handle site testing and grading inspection work on the Inland Valley site.

The board adopted an official policy on home instruction for youngsters confined to home.

They must be at home for three weeks and present the recommendation of a physician before home instruction will be provided.

Deadline Tuesday For Filing Of Politico Finance

Tuesday is the deadline for all victorious candidates to political office in the November 4 General Elections to file financial statements, according to James Olsson, county election chief.

Theoretically, all candidates are supposed to file receipt and expenditure statements, but there is no penalty on an unsuccessful candidate if he does not file one, Olsson stated.

IF A CANDIDATE who has won a contest does not file a statement, he must be certified in superior court before he can assume the office, Olsson continued.

As The Sun went to press, Thomas Coll and Betsy FitzGerald Rahn had filed statements.

Still to be received were statements from Jerome Waldie, 10th district assembly; Walter F. Young, sheriff; Floyd Marchus, county superintendent of schools, and James P. Kenny, first district supervisor.

COLL AND his backers, according to the statement, spent $2545.57 in his successful campaign as third district supervisor.

Mrs. Rahn, according to her statement spent $1234.79 in her contest against C. Terence Ring for the judgeship of the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

Sheriff's Detectives Open Anderson's Safe Deposit

The personal safe deposit box of William "Roy" Anderson who was murdered in his Orinda home by an unknown assassin was opened late yesterday in still another development in the two week old mystery.

Detective Walter Traywick, along with San Francisco police officers opened the box at the main branch of the Bank of America.

THE IMMEDIATE results of the search were not known as The Sun went to press.

In other developments in the baffling case, Sheriff Harry A. Brown turned over the complete investigation of the murder to Inspectors Ray Stoffels and Norman Wilson.

Brown will continue to investigate "new information and sidelights to the case," he said.

Anderson, 60, was shot and killed the night of November 25 when he answered the doorbell to his Orinda home. He had been president of a San Francisco collection agency.

SHERIFF'S INVESTIGATORS have eliminated the possibility that the killing was committed by a disgruntled debtor and that the reason for the murder has been attributed to Anderson's "extra marital affairs."

Brown denied having referred to his own men as "Keystone Kops" when he decided to take over the investigations after being dissatisfied with the progress of the case.

He stated that his men are good law officers and know their job well.

STOFFELS STATED that he would seek to have Lake Cascade dragged for clues. The lake is located near the scene of the murder, 1 Las Aromas Drive.

Stoffels stated that no one had been excluded from the intensive investigation and that the investigation would continue with renewed vigor until a solution is found.

Under question of sheriff's investigators in Case File No. 24065 were such facts as why Mrs. Retha Maxine Parks Filiberti was so frank in her admissions that she had been Anderson's mistress.

"WE'RE NOT overlooking one aspect of this case," Stoffels said.

Still to be discovered is the slug which ended Anderson's life.

Stoffels opined that the shot went through Anderson's body and became lodged in his clothing. When the body was removed the slug may have fallen to the ground, he commented.

Anderson was shot with a .22 calibre revolver, John Coulson, sheriff's dective noted.

A number of cards, letters, telephone calls and scraps of information have been received by the department.

"EVERYONE IS being checked out. Stoffels said.

Sheriff Brown reported that Wednesday night his daughter received a telephone call in which the sheriff was threatened.

Brown had stated earlier that he had received a call two days prior to the slaying of Anderson warning that Anderson was going to be killed.

Brown said that he withheld the information from his deputies not so much to test their ability, but because he felt the information was unimportant.

HE HINTED that he still felt the information was unimportant.

Stoffels received a call from a man Saturday night who said "We're going to get the guy that shot him". (Anderson).

Stoffels reported that the man sounded a bit drunk and there was a banjo playing in the background. The call was dismissed as a prank, Stoffels said.

Young To Answer To Brown Charge On Wednesday

Sheriff-elect Walter F. Young of Lafayette will appear in Judge Norman A. Gregg's Superior Court in Martinez Wednesday to show cause why a recount of ballots of the November 4 General Elections should not be granted to Sheriff Harry A. Brown.

The action of Judge Gregg was taken after Robert Conden, Brown's attorney, filed a petition for recount Tuesday, charging misconduct in the handling and counting of ballots.

BROWN LOST his office to Young by some 1421 votes, returns show.

Brown claims that the election boards in the county's 869 precincts were "guilty of misconduct in knowingly allowing illegal votes to be cast."

Brown's complaint continues by noting that because of the length of the ballot, "tabulators of the ballots became fatigued and lost interest in the sheriff's race."

Brown claims discrepancies in Pacheco precincts 6 and 7, both of which are in the Pleasant Hill area.

HE FURTHER claims discrepancies in Kensington Presinct 11 and Crockett Precinct 4.

He claims that accurate counts were not made, illegal procedures were used and that in some instances the number of votes cast for sheriff exceeded the total number cast in the precinct.

Brown's claims continued by charging that ballots in some casts were not transported to the county clerk's office in Martinez from the individual precincts in official ballot bags and that ballots and official tally sheets were left unguarded for periods of time.

According to the official canvass of the November 4 election which was transmitted by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors to the California Secretary of State, Brown lost out to Young, a sergeant in his department, by a total of 68,781 to 67,360.

Guests at a cocktail party given Sunday at the Charles M. Thomson home Sunday included the Messrs. and Mesdames Ray Parshall, Lou Chartier, Robert Perry, J. A. Nelson, Gus Maehl, Robert Flynn, Henry Kiefer, Walter Hunt and Warren Blodgett.

Fire District Meeting Slated

Commissioners of the Orinda Fire Protection District will meet December 16, according to Clarence Betz, secretary of the district.

The regular meeting is scheduled for the fourth Thursday of the month, but because of the Christmas holiday the meeting has been changed Betz explained.

Meetings are held at the Orinda Fire Station One at 20 Avenida de Orinda.

To Present Yule Program

Miramonte High School's Music Department and Drama Club will present its first annual Christmas program, "The Three Spirits of Christmas" on December 15, at 8 p.m.

The "three spirits", "Giving, Festive, and Religious," will be portrayed in music by the band, chorus, girls' glee, and girls' ensemble; and in drama by the presentation of the play "Why the Chimes Rang," by Raymond Alder.

Gloriettans Enter Decoration Race

An outdoor Christmas lighting contest will be sponsored by the Glorietta Improvement Association.

The contest is open to all residents served by the association.

First prize will be a $25 US Savings Bond. In addition there will be merchandise prizes donated by Orinda merhcants.

Judging will be between 7 and 10 p.m. on the evenings of December 20 and 21. Winners will be notified December 22.

The contest is for outdoor lighting Christmas scenes and illuminated displays.

No entry fee or application is necessary.

Charles Legge, secretary, said that all Glorietta neighbors are asked to participate.

The Sun Says 'Thanks' For Classified Record!

The Sun extends its sincere thanks to the consumers and advertisers who have made another classified ad record possible.

Sun classifieds have been booming for several years, and have always by far outnumbered the ads offered by other local newspapers.

This week's comparison, taken from direct counts of the number of ads in each newspaper, counts only The Sun classifieds which ran in The Sun Shopping News, and their re-entry in the Lafayette Sun, Walnut Creek Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun, and Orinda Sun is not counted.

So, The Sun had 632 classified ads in its Shopping News (repeated in the regular papers) this week, while Paper B had 121 ads at the same time. Paper C's Sunday edition had 152 classifieds, and Paper C's Wednesday edition had 141 classifieds.

Therefore The Sun carried 218 MORE ads than the other papers combined, carried on Wednesday and Sunday.

The breakdown by communities for this week is as follows:

	Sun	Paper B	Paper C (Sun.)	Paper C (Wed.)
WALNUT CREEK	278	65	88	83
LAFAYETTE	124	7	12	12
ORINDA	75	3	8	8
CONCORD	100	25	32	26
SAN RAMON VALLEY & OTHERS	55	21	12	12
TOTAL	632	121	152	141

Gas Prices Slip Another Cent In County Gas War

Contra Costa's gas war continued this week with prices slipping down a cent or two throughout the central county area.

In Orinda, the price stayed at "rock bottom," 18.9 cents for regular gas at one outlet, with other major gasoline stations selling from 22.9 cents to 24.9 cents for regular.

IN LAFAYETTE the price hit 21.9 at one "cut rate" station while at most other major company stations the prices remained at 22.9 to 24.9 for regular gas.

In most stations, premium type gasoline was selling for five cents above the price of regular type gasoline.

In Walnut Creek price levels were approximately the same as in Lafayette with Pleasant Hill prices at another "cut rate" station slipping to 20 cents flat for regular.

ONE MOTORIST arriving in the central county area remarked yesterday:

"To think I was paying 39 cents per gallon for regular in Eureka and 42 cents in Laytonville, makes me sick!"

Memo: How About Some Man of the Year Ideas?

Have you turned in your suggestion for the Orinda Man (or Woman) of the Year award? The committee of local citizens who will select the person for the honorary title will welcome your suggestions.

The annual Orinda Man of the Year award is sponsored by The Sun, but decision is made by the committee, which can consider or select any local person, regardless of whether or not the person has been suggested by the public.

THE COMMITTEE members will be named shortly

As 1958 near its close, most of us can think of many Orindans who have worked hard and long for the betterment of the community.

The committee will choose the person it deems to have contributed the most toward the welfare of Orinda during 1958; activities for prior years will also be considered.

SO JOT DOWN your suggestions and send them to The Sun, P. O. Box 147, Orinda. Your recommendations will be turned over to the committee. Although this is not a popularity contest or election, the committee needs your suggestions so as to enable it to deliberate thoroughly.

Announcement of the Man (or Woman) of the Year selection will be made in the January 2 issue of The Sun. Later the honored person will receive a certificate of recognition from The Sun.

Clerk: "Police officers and sheriff's deputies are just human beings. They usually try to be reasonable. An officer will usually bend over backwards to help you along."

MIKE: "I'd like to ask you, what do you think of after-game dances?"

Clark: "Well, they can be explosive. Everybody's pretty worked up emotionally and there can be trouble.

"But to tell you the truth, I don't think we've ever had any trouble with them in this county—if we have, I haven't seen the reports.

"The Las Lomas dances, for example, have never caused any disturbances I know of. How about out here?"

Mike (smiling at James Lewis, principal): "We're not allowed to have post-game dances here." (Laughter).

Clark: "Well, I didn't realize . . . I don't want to comment, then, because it's really up to your school authorities . . . What were you doing, Mike, handing me a loaded question?"

Mike: "Well, yes, I guess it was a loaded question. But I did want to know what you thought about it."

LEWIS: "Let me explain that there's a league ruling against post-game dances. The Las Lomas dance is not school-sponsored but handled by an outside organization, the Walnut Creek Recreation District.

"And the Pleasant Hill dances are sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Park and Recreation District."

(Additionally, the dances are not in violation of the league ruling because they are held each Friday night, not just on game nights.)

MRS. A. E. SYVERUD, teenage code committee chairman, said a similar talk-fest for teenagers will be held again on a date yet to be chosen in January.

Members of her committee are the Mesdames A. V. McLoud, R. A. Stark, R. W. Leland, George H. Clifford and R. F. Grah.

Faculty members present included Lewis, Miss Naomi Giddings, girls dean; Miss Shirley McPheeters, girls athletic instructor; Gordon Gibson, boys chief counselor; Robert Gallan, athletics coach, and Robert Rowe, boys dean.

Rites Held For Frances Marquardsen

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Frances Marquardsen, wife of a Berkeley steel casting company vice president.

She died at her home at 11 Estates Drive, Orinda, Sunday.

She was born in Buhl, Idaho, and graduated from the University of California as secretary of her class in 1922. She was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority and Prytanean Society.

Her husband, Ernest Marquardsen, survives her.

The final services were held at Grant Miller Chapel, 2850 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland.

Another Suit Filed After Orinda Beef

A counter suit in the Orinda dinner brawl case was filed Tuesday in Martinez by Navy Commander Harold S. DuVal.

DuVal answered to the $65,000 suit of an Orinda woman who has claimed that DuVal struck her.

He says he was only defending his wife at the time.

In an earlier suit Mrs. Lillian Baumgartner, 35, 15 Van Tassel Lane, Orinda, claimed that DuVal blacked both her eyes and knocked her down following an argument between she and Mrs. Duval.

The incident, according to the Contra Costa Sheriff's Department, happened September 20.

DuVal of 49 Monte Vista Road, Orinda, Tuesday claimed that Mrs. Baumgartner had assaulted

WC Becomes 'Capital' in Red Cross Merger

The Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross and the East Contra Costa County Chapter have been merged, it was announced this week.

The "unification" became final on Tuesday, according to Mrs. Arthur Hammonds, Mt. Diablo chapter chairman, and Sol Judson, East County chairman.

The Mt. Diablo chapter house at 1395 Civic Drive, Walnut Creek, will become the headquarters for the entire "Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter."

It will serve the central county and also Pittsburg, Antioch and the Brentwood area.

Karl Mahler will continue as chapter manager, and Mrs. Dorothy Jennings, executive secretary of the East Contra Costa chapter, will join the staff in Walnut Creek.

Nejedly Tells Clarification on Bingo Law

District Attorney-elect John A. Nejedly issued a clarification to statements attributed to him after a meeting with the Law Enforcement Committee of the Contra Costa Grand Jury November 25.

Nejedly commented that he did not intend his statements to be interpreted as meaning he urged that bingo games be legalized, but rather that he would enforce the present laws concerning bingo until such time as the legislators of the state should supersede them.

Nejedly stated that it will be his duty to enforce the laws prescribed by the state and county.

One of these laws forbids bingo games whether they be conducted by private enterprise or fraternal, social, church and service organizations.

"The present law forbids gambling in this county, with the exception of draw poker and "low ball."

"I must enforce these laws, in all cases, unless the laws are nullified," Nejedly said.

Nielsen Declares No Decision Made On Chamber Aid

County Supervisor Mel Nielsen has issued the following statement concerning a story which appeared in The Sun last Friday:

"At the meeting of the County Associated Chambers of Commerce on Friday, November 21, there were no reporters present in the room. However, in your newspaper, there were several quote assertedly made by me.

"Your caption, 'Supervisor Proposes Sum of $20,000 for Chambers' is not true.

"Sums of money such as $20,000 and $25,000, more or less, were mentioned, and used as examples.

"I did not outline any specific plan for such promotional aid, but did ask the Chambers to draw up a formula and program to be presented to the county administrator.

"Then I would request the Board of Supervisors to ask the administrator's office to make a study of the overall expenditure for promotion of Contra Costa County.

"This includes the program of the Development Association also. Maybe the two organizations can work together and accomplish a great deal of interest toward the development of our county.

"I sat in the meeting as a representative of the board and was not in a position then or now to make any commitment of any kind. When the time comes, I will make my report."

Girl Scouts' Christmas Tree Is Project

Girl Scouts of Troop 128, Orinda, chose as a Christmas service project the presentation of a handmade "Christmas Tree" to the Children's Hospital Tree Festival.

The entire troop, including Diane Kersten, Susan Dunshee, SuAnne Geandrot, Martha Spicer and Lynn Loveland, worked with their leader, Mrs. M. W. Loveland, cut, carved and pasted so that the "tree" could be completed in time for the festival.

Services Held for Jesse H. Schwarck

Private services were held for Jesse Henry Schwarck of Orinda on November 25. He died in Oakland following a short illness.

Mr. Schwarck, who was 59, was a native of Calhoun County, Iowa.

He served in World War I, and graduated from the University of California, class of 1923. He was a member of the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity.

Mr. Schwarck had been a resident of Orinda for the past 18 years, formerly residing in both Berkeley and Oakland. For many years he was affiliated with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Berkeley.

He is survived by his wife, Catherine E. Schwarck; two sons, Jefferson B. and William F. Schwarck of Orinda, and by three sisters: Mrs. John Goetz of Rockwell City, Iowa, Mrs. Guy W. Moore of Albert Lea, Minn., and Mrs. A. L. Smith of Denison, Iowa.

Willie Predicts Precipitate Precipitation

It was a crestfallen Willie Longfeathers whom we found drooping over a chocolate double malted yesterday at the drug store.

His friend of long standing, Minabelle Teehee, was sitting on the floor, tickling him between the toes with a turkey feather. Usually this brings Willie out of the most despondent mood, but there wasn't a giggle out of him.

Willie is a sensitive prognosticator, and last week he goofed, having predicted rain. No rain came.

Finally we got him to talk. "I got my weeks mixed up, that's all," he said. "I meant next week, when it will undoubtedly precipitate precipitately."

There follow the maximums and minimums for the past week:

Real Estate Fight Erupts Again As Counter Suit Filed

The Fred W. Maisel-Kenneth Richardson financial battle errupted again this week with the filing of a suit by Maisel against his former busness partner for $605,700.

In the suit, a cross-complaint against a $5000 suit filed by Richardson against Maisel six weeks ago, Maisel charges that an agreement he signed last June 4 with Richardson was obtained as the result of Richardson's threats that he could have the U.S. Attorney's office in San Francisco instigate prosecution of Maisel.

MAISEL CHARGES that fraud, undue influence and menace were used to obtain an agreement in which Maisel turned over his business to Richardson. For these reasons, Maisel's suit says, he should be given damages.

Maisel charges in his suit that Richardson "represented that he was well accuainted with an assistant U. S. attorney in San Francisco" and that Richardson threatened to "disclose certain circumstances . . . which circumstances he knew to be false" to U. S. Attorney which "would have tended to incriminate Maisel of being guilty of a crime."

RICHARDSON represented to Maisel, the suit says, "that he had instigated a recent prosecution against two builders in Contra Costa County, clients of Maisel's, which had culminated in their conviction for falsifying credit reports to certain federal agencies."

"Richardson claimed he possessed certain information which implicated Maisel with the illegal acts of the two builders; Maisel emphatically denies these charges," the action says.

MAISEL and his organizations, he said, were in a strained financial position and a lien had been filed against one of his other corporations at the time.

The lien deeply concerned him, he said, and he signed the agreement with Richardson on prevent undue publicity.

Weavers Choose New President

Mrs. Margaret Warnke was elected president of the Diablo Weavers Guild at the November meeting held in the home of Alma Phillips of Walnut Creek.

Other officers are Alberta Benson, vice president; Katie Kirsher, secretary; Dorothy Vasallo, treasurer; Alida Daniels, librarian; Marge Snipe, program chairman.

The program concerned a study and history of the natural dyes of prehistoric times.

Fordyce Rusk was chosen to contact the Martinez Community Hospital regarding times when members can assist weaving instructions in the therapy department.

The new officers will be installed on December 18 at the home of Ardine Holcombe, Orinda. A luncheon and gift exchange will be held.

Membership In TB Group Is Offered

Inquiries have come to the Contra Costa TB and Health Association's offices regarding the membership card enclosed with each letter of Christmas Seals this year, said leaders.

The membership card was enclosed with the Christmas Seals to give every adult resident of Contra Costa County an opportunity to become a member of this voluntary health agency.

According to George W. Wacker, President of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association, the only requirements for membership are an interest in the program to prevent, control, and ultimately erradicate TB, a minimum purchase of one sheet of Christmas Seals, and a signed application for membership. There are no annual dues.

"The responsibilities of members of the association", said Wacker, "are to participate in the Association's activities through serving on committees, attending meetings, electing its directors and officers, serving as volunteers when help is needed, interpreting the program to others, and buy Christmas Seals."

"The advantages of membership", continued Mr. Wacker, "will enable members to receive periodic bulletins, newsletters, other publications of the association, to be kept informed on the problems of tuberculosis, have the privilege of attending annual meetings with vote, and will receive the annual report of the activities of the Association."

Therapy Center To Elect New Officers

The monthly meeting of the directors and officers of the Mt. Diablo Therapy organization will be held at the center, 100 Golf Club Road, Pleasant Hill, at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

On the agenda will be the annual reports of the various committees with recommendations for future action.

Election of officers and directors for 1959 will be held.

Auxiliary units are cooperating in the Christmas gift box for the benefit of the Therapy Center.

The gift box, located in the Broadway shopping area, Walnut Creek, has many decorative and useful items for sale.

Art League Greets New Members

Members of the Art League of the East Bay held their final meeting of the year Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Dunn on Wildwood Ave., Piedmont.

Mrs. Dunn is the mother of our hostess, Mrs. Lindsay Howden. Mrs. Douglas Landreth assisted as Mrs. Howden's cohostess.

Five new members were welcomed and they were introduced by the vice-president and membership chairman, Mrs. George Davis Simpson of Orinda.

Two of the new members live in Contra Costa County. They are Mrs. Jo Ann Hess (Jo Ann Fish) of Lafayette, who majored in costume design at the College of Pacific and is at present a free lance fashion coordinator, and Mrs. Robert Yeamen (Bette Kellum) of Orinda, who studied interior decorating at the University of California in Los Angeles and at the University of California.

Both of these new members helped with the decorations for the Christmas Cargoes held last week in Oakland. Mrs. Warren Hudson (Lafayette), president of the Art League was in charge of the decorations for the Christmas Cargoes.

Civil Air Patrol to Hold Dance

Mt. Diablo Squadron 88 of the Civil Air Partol will hold a dance tomorrow from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Veterans Memorial Building, Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

The dance is to observe Civil Air Patrol Week, which began on Monday.

The local squadron is stationed at Buchanan Field, and some of its mobile search and rescue equipment is on display in the Walnut Creek area, said Major E. O. Musser, squadron commander.

Musser said the Communications Section of the squadron has many "fixed and mobile" stations in operation.

White Bear (fixed) stations on the air now are operated by Major Musser, Capt. Armand Annereau. Capt. B. L. Jackson Capt. Keith Nueneker, First Lt. Martin Gardner, W/O Caudill and Sgt. Hamilton Jeffers, whose station is at Lick Observatory on Mt. Hamilton.

Second Lt. George Mason operates White Bear 88 station at the squadron headquarters at Buchanan Field.

In addition to the squadron's "mobile' unit Black Bear 326, Major Musser, Capt. Annereau, Lt. Leo Kremper, W/O Caudill, er also operate mobile units, with er also operate obile units, with Sgt. John W. MacKenzie's "rig" in process.

"More than any other civilian organization, the Civil Air Patrol has demonstrated the real values and economical benefits to be gained from combining modern light planes and radio communications while providing disaster relief anytime any place," Musser said.

To supplement their handy hand-held sets and fixed-station transmitters, some members have designed and built their own lightweight VHF packets.

Others have equipped their cars with high-frequency transmitters and receivers. Many CAP planes carry two way radios operated on Civil Air Patrol frequencies.

"Originally, th Civil Air Patrol communications network was planned to support CAP ground and air activities. Now, it has become one of the organization's major operational undertakings," Musser said.

Club to Install Burchard Styles As Lt. Governor

Burchard H. Styles, 1060 Via Baja, Lafayette, will be installed as lieutenant governor of this Kiwanis division Saturday night, at El Nido Rancho Restaurant.

All Kiwanians and their wives are invited. Clubs in this division include Lafayette, Walnut Creek, San Ramon Valley, Concord, Martinez, Pittsburg, Antioch, Richmond, Berkeley, Albany, Emeryville and North Oakland.

Styles, an Oakland attorney is past president of the North Oakland club. He succeeds Dr. Vernon Edwards of Martinez as lieutenant governor.

He resides with his wife, Maurine, and 7-year-old son, Lauren, in a new home in Happy Valley highlands.

Heart Gift Suggested by Local Leader

A Yuletide remembrance in the form of a memorial gift to the Heart Association was suggested this week by William C. McIntosh, president of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

"A memorial to a loved one who is missed on Christmas Day is in the true spirit of Christmas giving," McIntosh said. "These gifts are lasting tributes to the memories of deceased friends and relatives since they help to save lives and provide hope for hearts."

Memorial gifts to the Heart Association are used for the support of research, education and community services to reduce the toll from the heart diseases.

THE YOUNG SCAMPS shown here are "graduates" of the American Red Cross mothers-to-be classes held regularly in the Mt. Diablo chapter house on Civic Drive, Walnut Creek. Left to right are Mr. and Mrs. Dreshfield and son Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lawson and William, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Swenson and Johnny and Peggy. Another such class will begin soon at the Red Cross Building. —Sun photo by Richard Morse

Youth Concerts Announces Schedule, Ticket Heads

Area chairmen and board members of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts have been hard at work planning for the concert series which will start in January.

This is the concert series which is designed for entire families to enjoy together. The ticket drive will begin January 5 and continue for a duration of two weeks.

As in the past, the concert series will commence with the world famous San Francisco Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Earl Murray. Their repertoire is always chosen so as to delight audiences from the smallest child to the eldest adult. Their concert will be performed on Sunday, January 25.

ON MARCH 1, Berkeley's Company of the Golden Hind will present one of Mozart's Comic Operas. It has not yet been announced which production they will give, but possibly "The Marriage of Figaro." Rachmael ben Avram will direct.

The Roger Wagner Chorale with the duo-pianists, Stecher and Horowitz, will come to the concert series audience on Sunday, April 5. The Roger Wagner Chorale originally had its beginning in Los Angeles, but has since become well-known throughout the world for its many magnificent performances both here and abroad.

As a bonus concert to season ticket holders, Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts is presenting the Sixth Army Band, April 19. This 60 member band should be a great stimulus for these youth who are students of instrumental music, and be equally as interesting and entertaining to everyone else.

THE CONCERTS will all be held on Sunday afternoons at 2:30 p.m. at Las Lomas High School Auditorium. Tickets are $3.50 per season ticket for child or adult. No single admissions are sold.

There are area chairmen for each area who can be contacted for concert information. They are as follows: Walnut Creek, Mrs. George Gessling, Walnut Creek; Mrs. H. Ward Alter, Danville; Lafayette-Orinda, Mrs. Oscar Busch; Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Kenneth Heiges.

Anyone who is interested in concert tickets as a Christmas gift may write to Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts, P. O. Box 83, Walnut Creek.

Friends Clothes Drive Extended

Wilson Feted At Dinner

County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson addressed the Association of California County Superintendents of Schools at Sacramento, in a report on a recent meeting of the national association at Minneapolis.

Wilson attended the convention of the National Association of County and Rural Area Superintendens, of which he is a past president, and served on a committee for re-writing on rural education in the United States.

He also participated in two section meetings.

While at the state conference, Wilson and 15 other retiring county superintendents were honored at a dinner. Wilson will end 26 years as Contra Costa County superintendent upon his retirement in January

At the three-day conference were County Superintendent-elect Floyd Marchus and Assistant County Superintendents Harold DeFraga and Harold Kaar.

14 For Dinner, But Lots of Fun At Polk Home

During the Thanksgiving holidays there were seven cars and two trucks parked in and around the home of W. A. Polk, manager of the Central Valley National Bank of Orinda, at his home at 6 Broadview Terrace.

Mrs. Polk comes from a large family and their home was the spot chosen for a family reunion of five sisters and a brother with their husbands and wives — the first time they have all been together for 12 years. With a son from Chicago and other guests from Los Angeles there were 14 for dinner which was a real old fashioned one with home made foods and all the trimmings.

Needless to say it was a very happy time, although a bit exhausting for one not used to such confusion, so if Mr. Polk looks a little stunned for a few days it is understandable, commented Mrs. Polk.

When in doubt while driving—slow down.

Mrs. Doyle Talks on 'Indonesia'

The League of Women Voters recently held a coffee-dessert at the home of Mrs. J. H. Lindemuth, 3494 Blackhawk Road, Lafayette. Mrs. Leonard Doyle of Walnut Creek spoke on the "Indonesia, Today and Tomorrow". Mrs. Doyle, member of the local league and past president of the Berkeley league, has just returned from 16 months in Indonesia with her husband.

Doyle, professor of business administration at the University of California, was at the University of Indonesia training an Indonesian faculty in economics. This meeting was the introduction to the league's current study of "Foreign Policy," whose chairman is Mrs. Alex Babin of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Arthur Holstein of Concord was general chairman. She was assisted by the Mesdames A. S. Hartanov of Orinda, John Hunt and Ernest Dickson of Lafayette, John Selley and James C. Keating of Walnut Creek, and Guy Harris, Mrs. Rex Thomas, E. M. Crump, P. H. Wilson, and Donald L. Styles of Concord.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization whose purpose is to promote political responsibility among citizens. Any woman interested in the league may contact Mrs. Holstein, 4980 Olive Drive, Concord, at MU 2-3212.

Manginis Plan Holiday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Mario L. Mangini, 38 Tara Road, Orinda, have invited guests for a holiday party to begin at 8 p.m. December 13.

There will be singing, dancing, and piano playing.

Christmas Party Set By Women

The Orinda Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas party Monday in place of its regular meeting.

Entertainment will be provided by a committee chairmaned by Mrs. Don Anderson. Mrs. Philip Mittell is in charge of refreshments. Assisting her will be the Mesdames Fred Neilsen and Eldon Parsons.

Members will exchange small gifts and Santa Claus will be present. Members will bring toys and food for baskets for worthy families.

Instead of the traditional Christmas gathering this year, a social evening January 1 is being planned by the social committee, chairmaned by Mrs. Henry Soubielle.

It will be held at the El Nido Fiesta Room at 9 p.m. A midnight breakfast will be served.

Committee members are the Mesdames Myron Osmunsen, David Edwards, Ellis Hodges, James Byers, Richard Funk, M. C. Rich, William van Voorhie, John Barkley, Freeman Bishop, Vernon Lorch, Rhys Miller, Earl Hill and Jack Wallace.

Lions Club Asks Road Rules Unity

The Lafayette Lions Club has adopted a resolution calling for national uniformity of speed limits; and of the size, shape and placement of directional signs; for a correlated system of assigning numbers to highways, and asking that all highways under the current federal road building program be toll free.

A copy of the resolution, signed by R. W. Rustvold, secretary, and Louis A. Repetto, president, has been sent to Congressman John R. Baldwin and to Lions district resolutions committees.

Of Taxes, Industry, Related Ideas On Committees . . .

Sooner or later, in almost every home and office, coffee shop and restaurant in the county, the subject of taxes and industry comes into the conversation.

This topic is especially prevalent right after tax bills have been sent out—which is about now.

Let's face it, we are basically an industrial county. Those of us who live in primarily residential communities, as most of us do, tend to forget how much of the burden of the cost of running the county is born by the industrial complex which exists right next door along the waterfront.

IF YOU WOULD like a reminder, here are the 1957-58 figures: The total assessed valuation of the county is $741,508,265. The assessed valuation of industry is $377,613,160. Figure it out for yourself . . . it means simply that industry is paying a little more than half our total tax bill.

Can you imagine where we would be if we did not have this "cushion?"

Consider also that business pays a good percentage of the tax bill, so we homeowners, who pay from our own pockets, are really not carrying the biggest share of the burden.

So what about it? Our taxes are still high . . . too high. Fortunately, there is something we can do about it, but it will take a little education and perhaps a change of attitude on the part of some of us.

THE FACT IS finally soaking in that we need light industry in our part of the county. It would go a long way toward paying the bills, and it could be a real asset to the communities fortunate enough to acquire it.

Light industry, or controlled manufacturing, incidentally, does not mean big factories belching smoke and noxious fumes . . . it means the right kind of building in the right place.

But here's the rub! It's not a question of whether we will "permit" light industry . . . it is more a question of whether such industries will have us.

There is terrific competition for the right kind of industry, and you've got to offer more than a grudging "OK" before industry will clasp your community to its warm, well padded bosom.

On a county level, our board of supervisors spent, last year, almost $50,000 through the Contra Costa Development Association, in an effort to "sell" the county to industry.

THIS GROUP is a sort of "super" chamber of commerce operating on a county level. How effective this group is in during industry to our area, we are not in a position to say. We have heard professionals in the field cast critical remarks in that direction.

But the cost is still there. San Mateo County last year spent some 30 cents on the tax rate for county promotion. This might account in some respect, for the heavy industrial development down that way.

Our county spent about six mills (they can go as high as 4 cents by law) which accounts for the money that went to the development association.

Recently another suggestion has come to light. Individual chambers have for a long time been seeking out funds for their own promotion jobs. Some chambers have done an outstanding job in beating the job for their respective communities, others, only a mediocre job.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen recently suggested that $20,000 might be allocated to the various individual chambers in the county, on a pro rata basis, for development of the individual areas.

NEWLY ELECTED supervisor Tom Coll, as part of his platform, advocated the establishment of a special department in the county to lure added industry to our shores.

We feel that perhaps this latter "department" might be a duplication of efforts of the development association, and we aren't sure just where the money would go under Mr. Nielsen's suggestion.

We would like to suggest that the entire matter might well be studied by a citizens committee appointed by the county. Such a committee should be an unbiased, expert group, which can view the situation with impartiality.

THE NEW COUNTY administrator, Thomas McBrien, should be an ex-officio member of the group, and the committee should call upon members of the development association, chambers of commerce and other allied groups for advice, but these groups should not be represented on the committee itself.

Such a committee, with qualified members and a little time, could make recommendations which would be invaluable to the county.

And these recommendations, if followed, could have a very real effect on your tax bill.

Hurray For Cu[lture . . .

We say hurray for culture!

We also say, hurray for people who can get together and have a spanking good time, and at the same time provide a real service to the community.

Who are we thinking of? Specifically, The Dramateurs, wh. have taken up permanent (we hope) residence in the old Lafayette Town Hall and are busy providing an ever-changing bill of fare for those of us who will simply take the trouble to attend one of their performances.

THE MEMBERS of the Dramateurs come from all over our area—each community is represented—and the material they present is universal.

We can remember when a little group called the Straw Hat Theater held forth on the local boards, and we note with provincial pride that many of the members of that group have gone on to professional fame.

But best of all, an evening spent with our local little theatre group is an evening well spent. It is fun, the acting is of professional quality, and considering the financing available it is amazing what they can do with sets, lighting and costuming.

WE HAVE ONLY one regret. We would like to see more such groups in operation. Not from the point of view of competition, but from the point of view of a varied fare for the people who enjoy such productions and the increased opportunity for participation on the part of our local thespians.

In the meantime, we say hurray for culture!

It Was A Real Fine Party . . .

By DICK OSBORN

"I am thankful that I have a place to stay and something to eat."

That may not sound like something you would hear one of your neighborhood children say at Thanksgiving, but it might have been one of your neighbors!

Because the statement—and it really came from the heart—was made by a Contra Costa Child.

Sometimes we are fortunate enough to have something happen to us—something we don't expect—that puts the world, and our fellow men, into a different perspective.

A SHORT TIME ago, before Thanksgiving, a newspaper-type friend of mine asked me if I wouldn't like to attend a Thanksgiving party with him.

Sure I would. Party is a fine word in my book. But I was the one who got conned this time, thank goodness. I was a little suspicious when he said the party started at 7 p.m. or so, because that is kind of early, even for the crowd I sometimes travel with.

But I should ask questions. Just lead me on.

And lead me on, he did . . . right to the Contra Costa Juvenile Hall, where we knocked on the door of Edgar Cottage, and were admitted to a bright scene of Thanksgiving gaiety.

At about this stage, I was feeling very sorry for myself. Why should I come over to Edgar Cottage for a Thanksgiving party. I didn't know any of the kids. What the heck should I care.

THE FIRST THING I saw was a little moppett with the biggest blue eyes you ever saw! She had cut little pigtails, and she stood about a foot and a half high.

We made friends right on the spot, and she toured her "home" on my shoulder. (And I hate to admit it, but I enjoyed myself.)

Then all the children joined forces to put on a Thanksgiving play, and they served coffee, punch and cake and cookies. It was probably the finest Thanksgiving party I have ever attended.

These are children, who, for one reason or another, are being cared for by the county until homes can be found for them. Some return very quickly to their own parents, others must wait until parents come along.

But don't ever think these kids aren't the most thankful people on earth. A paper tree had been built on a bulletin board, and each "leaf" was signed by a youngster, with what he was thankful for.

SUCH COMMENTS as, "I am thankful that my mother and father aren't suffering any more."

". . . that I have a place to stay and something to eat."

". . . For school, a pillow to rest my head on, and for the turkey."

And one of the most poignant of all (and you have to see it through a child's eyes) . . .

"I am thankful for the beautiful world."

I may have had doubts about Thanksgiving before I went to the party at Edgar cottage, but I certainly don't have any more. I'm just thankful.

We Like It Here . . .

She Altogether Dislikes 'Mad-Rush' Togetherness

By MARIE MONAHAN

WE'RE ALL GUINEA PIGS for the sociologists. They are studying our behavior patterns. They want to learn more about Suburbia, USA.

Well, they won't get anything out of me. Except — Suburbia has altogether TOO MUCH TOGETHERNESS!

Thanksgiving has always been one of our favorite holidays. A good old-fashioned Family Day. The kind that epitomizes Togetherness. No hurry, no rush. We didn't even mind wrestling w/the bird. And we couldn't hurry HIM!

THE CHILDREN always used to be at home. We played games, had a Musicale. Everybody was anxious to help in the kitchen. The Family Portrait was one of peace, serenity, the true meaning of Togetherness.

If you have a family today, who can HELP but rushing together MOST of the time? Through thick and thin, mad rush OUT, mad rush IN! Too MUCH of it serves to breed father-apartness. We meant FARther-apartness, but the way the word came out first speaks MORE the Truth!

Back in the old days, father arrived home to the tantalizing smell of a long-cooking stew. The kids clamored for a kiss, fetched his coat and then sat down for a quiet chat to review the day. Nearby the children played quietly or did their homework.

NOW POOR DAD dashes in the drive, just one tire screech behind Mother. He sheds his coat and stirs up a drink, Sans Ice, (Mother has forgot and left the "refrig" off all day for a fast defrost job, having given her ALL to Club that day!) While she elbows him out of the way to whip up minute rice, unwrap TV dinners, stir the instant pudding. The children haven't yet appeared on the scene.

THEY'RE watching television and as father goes through the dimly-lit room, their eyes remain blank and unblinking! Mom hollers to come and clean up, wear the white shirts, oops she forgot to iron them, Get out the ironing board! Shine those shoes! It's the night of the recital or the open house. They've GOT TO go. And they've GOT TO hurry!

Father opens his drawer to get a fresh shirt. Oh, NO! not again! Mother STILL hasn't picked up the laundry! And in this frenetic and hectic state, the family sits down scowling to dinner-on-the-run. Father gulps his hot coffee, orders the clan to the garage, flings himself and THEM into the car and On and OUT on what is loosely termed an evening of Togetherness. Get the picture?

That's why we like Thanksgiving. And why we counted our blessings that day. We took inventory and decided the mad rush of Togetherness Thing can go TOO FAR.

So . . . Bring out the Bingo game, kids . . . Never knew it was such fun! Toss me a sock to mend while you're at it (haven't done them for years!) Stoke up the fire and fetch father's slippers. If that Suburbia social survey man comes by, he'll see things real homey on THIS home front. Get the picture?

Inside Out . . .

Modern 'Economic' Units Ancient 'Political' Rites

"Today we live in twentieth century economic units. But superimposed upon them are eighteenth and nineteenth political units."

We're quoting Dr. Philip Hauser, who heads the University of Chicago's sociology department.

WE'RE INCREASINGLY aware that his statement is all too applicable to our local politics. A good many years ago the "lame-duck" problems were amended on a national level. But we're still harboring the birds here.

Originally transportation difficulties during winter weather brought about the necessity of a time lapse for newly elected officials to travel to county seats and capitols following election day. This reason is no longer valid.

Our whole political structure needs updating and drastic overhauling.

Candidates are still being chosen for emotional reasons, their vote getting abilities and party loyalties and services than for their proven abilities.

INDUSTRY AND BUSINESS have long demanded certain standards and qualifications before hiring employees.

Why not apply certain standards to our office holders? Before filing for candidacy, politicos would be required to pass examinations which would guarantee top grade men to represent each party.

Instead of outmoded campaign oratory, candidates would present concise programs to the voters and could spend the time between primary and general elections studying existing governmental problems and preparing methods of coping with these.

ON ELECTION DAY voters would have the satisfaction of knowing that either candidate elected would be able, co-operative and honest.

No doubt such measures would have to be instituted through initiative and referendum rather than legislation.

And maybe someday we'll become embarassed enough by breakdown of local administrators to act. This county would be a wonderful place to begin!

Letters to The Editor

GOOD IDEA

Dear Editor:

I appreciated your Staff Corner column so much! (Bill Hines' article on the school children's dimes for the Clinton, Tennessee schoolhouse in the November 28 Sun).

I truly hope you and Springhill School have started a large snowball, and I intend to send my copy of this to our principal at Strandwood School here in Gregory Gardens.

If only your third paragraph regarding being born without prejudice could sink in. I've so often wished, I guess hopelessly, that if parents, even though they be prejudiced against those who are "different" could at least keep silent, it would help.

How to make universal ". . . catch a 'tiger' by the toe?" How to just make any kind of name-calling the cardinal sin instead of the little things that kids grow out of anyway!

Would surely love to see The Sun follow up on your idea.

JOYCE McBETH

STAFF CORNER

DEAR EDITOR:

A most enthusiastic congratulations to Bill Hines for his terrific Staff Corner on the Clinton, Tennessee bombing last week. It was the best thing I've ever seen in The Sun.

Not only was the subject matter worth handling, but the way he did it was superb!

What a real service a paper can do when it takes up a good cause in this manner. There was real feeling behind what he wrote.

My opinions on this are shared by many friends with whom I have talked.

BARBARA BOROWIAK

THROAT - STUFFING?

DEAR EDITOR:

Your editorial in The Sun entitled "You Just Can't Stuff This Down the Throats of the Voters," was certainly timely and I'm sure approved by most of your readers, including myself.

However, if the Board of Supervisors can legally follow the advice of Desmond Teeter and impose a special levy to raise the money turned down by the voters in Propositions C and D and do so then the voters do get the deal stuffed down their throats.

It would seem advisable to me that you advise the voters through your columns if Teeter's suggestion is legal. If so then it would appear that the Board of Supervisors' powers need be curtailed.

I will look for your report on the legality of Teeter's suggestion and your further comments on the matter.

Women's Club Holiday Party Is Tuesday

The annual Christmas party of the Women's Club of Walnut Creek will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the clubhouse on Lincoln Avenue.

The executive board is hostess to the members. The Junior Women's Club will present the program.

In place of a gift exchange, it has been the custom for each member to bring donations of canned or packaged foods which will be distributed to needy families by the Walnut Creek Volunteer Bureau.

Mrs. Claud Smith, Junior Coordinator will introduce the program that day and Mrs. Ernest Holman and Mrs. Sherman Camp will be in charge of decorations which will be of a Christmas motif.

Mrs. Arthur Larson, president, will be the official hostess. Assisting her will be Mesdames George Fox, Carol Young, Sam Adkins, Edward Losh, Alford Beers, Leonard Seclef, Ray Rosel, Frank Scothorn, Robert Samuels, C. E. Tate, Arthur Herring, Eugene Bodway, Fred Samm, David Welch, Grace De Bonnis, Stanley Darrow, Orin Boslar, and Arthur Downs.

At this event, four senior past presidents who are still active in the club's activities have been invited to pour at the tea table and will be honored as special guests.

They are Mrs. J. C. McGeehon, Sr. 1918-1919; Mrs. J. H. Brubaker 1928-1930; Mrs. H. H. Harmon, 1933-1935, and Mrs. H. S. Zehner, 1935-1937.

One of the activities the club has been interested in for the past eight years is Cub Scout Pack 59.

At a recent luncheon the award of the charter was made by Mr. Brooks Kuehl, assistant district executive of Mt. Diablo Council of Boy Scouts, to the president Mrs. Arthur Larson.

The colors that day were presented by three cub scouts who are members of the pack—Gregory Hatfield, Eric Johnsen, and Steven Hart.

The sponsorship began in 1950 when Mrs. M. C. Bolender was president and is now under the leadership of the Youth Conservation committee. Mrs. Elliott Mauzy is chairman.

Another Child Guidance Expert Is Heard From!

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

This columnist considers himself a child guidance expert, along with Dr. Gessell, Dr. Spock and Mrs. Silverman. And now we add another name to this distinguished list—Mrs. Wendell T. Jackson of 136 Jennie Drive.

Two weeks ago I printed excerpts and cartoons from a little pamphlet, "Growing Pains." (Incidentally, we have some copies left — send 4-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope to The Sun.) Dr. Henry Rollins of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co., publisher of the pamphlet, concluded that a lack of mutual understanding between children and parents "causes most of the heartaches."

And the next speaker . . .

Now Mrs. Jackson writes an authorative paper on this subject, herewith:

DEAR MR. SILVERMAN:

Someone once said to me—and now that I think of it I believe it must have been my three-year-old daughter—the best way to write is to sit down with pencil in hand and begin. Actually, this hasn't worked out too well. Not only am I not inspired, but I find it very difficult to type with a pencil in my hand.

At any rate, without wishing to discourage you on the caliber of reader who peruses your column each week, I wish to advise that I did duly note your editorial of the 21st.

I am fascinated with the news that the problems of children and parents stem from mutual misunderstanding. This reminds me of the mechanic who said "I know what is wrong with your car. It's broke". Nevertheless I determined I should put forth more effort in understanding my children.

Since all children are individuals and, therefore, different I reasoned what better source of information could I find regarding my three-year-old daughter than my three-year-old daughter herself.

And here goes . . .

"Lori", I said, "Why do you consistently refuse practically all forms of edible material approved for human consumption with the exception of bread, milk, peaches, and potato chips, when all forms of crawling insects and foreign matter have appeared delicious from the beginning. Why are you afraid of kitty cats, puppy dogs, and the dark, and yet, when Mommie blinks her eyes twice, you will hang by one foot over a 50-foot drop or walk up and insult husky strangers."

Her answer was clear. She said "betaus".

I feel as though we are on a much firmer footing now.

I read a few weeks ago in the S.F. Chronicle about a Mother Machine now being perfected by two doctors in the east. This consists of a doll-like creature with terry-cloth breast which dispenses milk and of which all experimental monkeys have become very fond.

I submit to Dr. Rollins that one such unit installed in every home adjacent to the automatic washer and dryer while us real-live former secretaries play pinochle may be the answer to all our problems.

Very truly yours,
MRS. WENDELL JACKSON

Thank you, Dr. Jackson and now we'll hear from . . .

Sheriff's Deputies Seek Needy Groups for Circus

President W. J. "Joe" Wlash of the Contra Costa Deputy Sheriffs' Association, announced today that the Deputies group is interested in making free circus tickets available to any worthwhile charitable group in the central county area dealing with crippled, retarded or needy children.

Walsh said that a gratifying response to advance ticket sales on the part of many local businessmen and residents will make it possible for many underprivileged children to see the forthcoming James Brothers Childrens Christmas Circus being sponsored by the association.

THE COUNTY JUVENILE Hall has been given enough tickets to admit all of the dependent and neglected children who are being cared for there at this time, according to Robert Hamlin, superintendent of the hall.

The circus, of particular interest to younger children, will feature high wire acts, the daring sway pole act, clowns and animal acts, and will be presented in Lafayette and Martinez.

The Lafayette show will be Sunday, December 14, at the Acalanes High School gym, where two matinee shows will start at 1 and 3 p.m. while the Martinez show is to be held on Tuesday, December 16 at Alhambra High School, with afternoon and evening shows scheduled, Walsh said.

PROCEEDS OF the show will benefit the Widows and Orphans Fund of the Deputies Association. Adult tickets will be sold for $1.10 and children for 50 cents, and will be available at the door or through advance sales now in progress, while a special family ticket which will admit any four persons can be purchased for $3, according to Walsh.

Groups interested in the free tickets should write to The Deputy Sheriffs' Association, Post Office Box 333, Martinez.

All applications will be investigated and must be approved by the circus committee of the association.

Tea to Fete Guest at Thompson's

Last Saturday Miss Kathleen Glynn Thompson entertained at tea in honor of her cousin, Miss Carol McKelligon of Portland, Ore. Receiving with them was Kathleen's mother, Mrs. George E. Thompson. Tea was served from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Thompson home high on the knoll of Reliez Station Road in Lafayette.

Miss McKelligon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. McKelligon, formerly of Berkeley. She attends the University of Oregon and is a Kappa Kappa Gamma. She was the houseguest of the Thompsons during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Pouring were the Mesdames Leonard M. Chaney of Piedmont, J. Arthur Moore and Howard Leggett of Berkeley, Frederick Anderson of Orinda. Decorations were chrysanthemums and fruit, carrying out the Oriental color accents of the home.

Sixty friends of Kathleen's were invited. Among them were former classmates of Carol's from Anna Head School. Kathleen is a senior at Anna Head's.

The Thompsons Thanksgiving plans included dinner with the Wallace B. Colthursts of Oakland. For Christmas they will fly to Phoenix, Ariz., to visit Mrs. Thompson's father, A. A. McKelligon. Their son, Lt. Kirk Sanders Thompson, will join them from Ft. Hood., Tex.

Local Women Will Attend Hadassah Meet

Mrs. John Cronin, President of Diablo Valley Chapter of Haddasah, accompanied by other members of her group, will attend the West Coast area Conference of Hadassah, Women's Zionist Organization, in San Francisco Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The conference, designed as a miniature national convention, will attract women from the Southern, Central and Northern Regions of the Pacific Coast including Anchorage, Alaska, as well as from the Mountain Plains region.

Delegates to workshop sessions will have a unique opportunity to receive inspiration from their national leader and to exchange ideas and information on implementing the two-fold Hadassah program of comprehensive medical care, and child rescue and education in Israel; and of the strengthening of democracy in America.

Nationally famed speakers at the conference will include Leon Uris, author of the best selling novel of life in Israel, "Exodus"; Bruce McDaniel, former director of the United States Technical Assistance to Israel; and Dr. Miriam Freund, National President of Hadassah.

An added highlight will be the showing of high fashion dresses and gowns made by Hadassah-trained Israeli students of coutourier designing.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

By the time you read this "turkey day" will be a thing of the past and you will probably have just finished creaming the left overs. We will have attended the Fresno State Homecoming dance at the "Hacienda Motel" in Fresno and the "BIG" game there. 'Twas visitin' and eatin' day Friday at Grandfather's farm — much to the children's delight.

November 20 a group of Delta Gamma Alums — representing the new Diablo unit — gathered at El Nido for luncheon followed by bridge. Arrangements were made by still-tanned Betty (Mrs. Gordon) Wise who looked luscious in a creamy, white wool. Stunning Joan (Mrs. Samuel) Mason, president, wore a salt and pepper tweed sheath. Joan is also an active member of the Jr. Linnets and a branch of Children's Hospital — all this, and a family too! Plans are in progress for a holiday party Sunday at Judy and Ken Allen's home in Lafayette. Hours will be from five to seven and it is hoped that many Delta Gammas who might not have known about this new and active group will attend.

If you are one and are interested do call either Judy (WHAT a beauty) Allen, AT 3-8992, or Joan Mason, YE 4-2999. Others attending the luncheon were the Mmes. Gorrill Butler, Richard Dunn, Robert Bruen, Don Hargrave, Dick Cummode, "Buck" Berger, Dean Rogers, Roy Davies, Bob Gordon and Kennian Smith.

Mutual friends gather for luncheon . . .

On the same day and at the same place a pre-Thanksgiving luncheon-bridge party was jointly given by Mrs. Mary B. Welch of Lafayette and Mrs. Joseph Risse of Danville. Their many guests were mutual friends from our area and the peninsula.

Vivacious young Lynette Sillers invited a group of her Junior High friends for an evening of dancing and a light buffet recently. Her guests were Carol Jackson, Sally Marler, Sydney Barnard, Bill Kindey, Art Bliesner, Steve Miles and Steve Gibson.

Mrs. George Newhall graciously opened her fabulous home in Montair to members of the "Mary Doyle Unit" (Mt. Diablo Therapy Center), their husbands and friends for a "Fun Night" November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Richardson, chairmen for the evening, assisted the lovely Mrs. Newhall in greeting over 100 guests. The party was held in the large recreation room which is handsomely decorated with the magnificent big game trophies and gun collection of the late Mr. Newhall. The committee in charge of arrangements included the Messrs. and Mmes. John Rasmussen, Hugh Gordon, Robert Carpenter, Joseph Murphy, William Owsley, Chester Gillig, Jack Von Wald, David Humphrey, Manuel Giffin, W. B. Reinheimer, Thomas Graham, John Keeling, Edward McIntosh, Robert Lindgren and Donald Huenink.

And introductions all around . . .

One evening recently the "Flickers" unit held its monthly meeting at the Center with about 30 invited guests attending. Each officer of the unit was introduced by president Lorraine Olson and each explained the functions of her job. These short talks were followed by a longer one by the Center's director, Mrs. Juanita Benoy, who spoke of the past, present and future of the Center.

During the business meeting (during which Mrs. Olson was presented with a lovely gift and Mrs. Richard Lieber became the new president) the guests were taken on a tour by both Mrs. Benoy and Mrs. Leo Keany. Refreshments followed with the Mmes. David Penna, John Mozetta, Jack Gordon and Edward Coleman presiding at the tea tables. Arrangements were handled by the Mmes. Harold Vincent, Robert Schroeder, Lee Soares and W. B. Wilkerson.

Keep hearing about the fantastic enthusiasm of the 30 or so Miramonte girls who have just formed a new junior unit—the "Bobolinks". Intend to find out more about them — but one thing I DO know is that they are having a cake sale at the Orinda Cross roads tomorrow from 10:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and also that they attended the first all-junior unit dance — "Fallen Leaves" — at the Diablo Country Club Saturday night. Other junior units attending were the Parakeets, who chairmaned, Doves, Jr. Robins and Jr. Larks.

In Orinda — Carol Leland and Bertie Eberhart co-hostessed a bridge-luncheon at Carol's home. Many friends and neighbors were invited.

Home from school for the holidays . . .

Mike Catherall and Bruce McLaren (sons of Carolyn Catherall, a Tanager, and Bobbie McClaren, an Oriole), who are freshmen at the University of Arizona at Tucson, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at their homes in Orinda. While here they attended a "Pershing Rifles" convention in San Francisco.

Fran and Jim Seaman lived it UP and lived it DOWN in a period of about four days. First they attended "The Music Man" after which they spent the night in the city. Next morning they took off for "Heritage House", a quiet, lovely spot near Fort Bragg, where they rested and caught up on their reading. Away from the phone? HEAVEN!

An "All Day Bridge" was held by Virla Krotz and Peg Majka at Peg's home in Orinda. Their guests arrived for breakfast, stayed for lunch and throughout the afternoon. The hostesses were assisted by Jane Brobeck and Ruth Henry. The affair was held as these ladies' contribution in behalf of the Therapy Center.

And then there was THE "Big Game". What a gala week-end! Can't possibly tell all I've heard today. To begin with there was the always gay dinner dance at Orinda Country Club. One of the many pre-dance parties was given by Laurie and Ernie Abbes. This was a kind of "before and after" party — this being the BEFORE. Next time their friends enter the Abbes home on Orchard Road in Orinda — it will have been completely redecorated. Just knowing that the Joe Downs are at the helm is "'nuff said".

Five of Laurie and Ernie's six adorable daughters assisted with hostess duties — graciously greeting guests and passing trays and trays of hot, succulent hor d'oeuvres. All were garbed in red and white, knitted, "at home" toreador outfits. Laurie was a dream in a harem-skirted, claret satin gown.

And on to the club for the dancing . . .

Going on to the club later were the Don Parle Whites, Harry Martins, Bud Ongs, Frank Dutras, Frank Wrights, Joe Langs, Don Huckes, Stan Holmgrens, Bill McGuires, Richard Bliesners, Art Lundblads, Bob Rays, Art Comerfords and Carrell Petersons. Spotted dancing to Dick Foy's music (lovely Arlene de Camp — who sings and plays the violin — was featured) were the Messrs. and Mmes. Vincent Murphy, Adolph Markstein, Ray Herman, Ray Parshall, Art Jensen, George Good and Aubrey Sweet.

EGGNOG PARTY is in the offing for members of Alpha Gamma Delta. The event will be held on Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Jack Block home, 101 Meadow View Road, Orinda. The ladies will bring canned goods for the Central County Volunteer Bureau. Left to right are Mesdames E. W. Jacobson, R. C. Hansen, J. J. Fuerst, G. V. Ball and A. M. Lancey. —Sun photo by Richard Morse

Delta Gamma Members Hear Talk on Books

"The Paper-Back Revolution" was the topic of a talk given by Ben Rose Bluth at a dinner meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma members at El Nido recently.

Rosenbluth, owenr of Ben's 7 Arts Book Shop in Walnut Creek briefly reviewed the paper-back in the United States, stressing that these publications are of excellent quality and are not watered down or popularized editions.

The Stanley School choir, of Lafayette, presented some musical numbers conducted by Miss Barbara Fritz.

Among those attending were: Mt. Diablo Unified School District: Helen Castle, Irmgard Cox, Doris Crosby, Leone Fahy, Ruth Galindo, Hildred Garrison, Hetty Johnson, Jean Bruzzone, Mary Lovejoy, Doris Loveridge, Helen Lum, Gladys McCoy, Mary Mendenhall, Mansuetta Slater, Iris Thorpe, Harriett Kartozian and Elizabeth Zilen.

Walnut Creek: Alice Putnam; Alamo, Vicky Hardy; Lafayette Graylis Vossler, Jane Patorio and Eleanor Diel.

John Nejedly, Patricia Kotowicz To Be Married

The engagement of Miss Patricia Kotowicz of Walnut Creek to County District Attorney-elect John Nejedly was announced November 22, during a gathering held after the traditional Stanford-University of California football game.

Friends had long speculated about Walnut Creek's most eligible bachelor, who for 10 years has been city attorney and one of the most influential area leaders.

During recent days, Nejedly has been doubly busy making plans for a ski trip for him and his bride to New Mexico, and also for taking over the post of Contra Costa County district attorney, which he won in the June primary elections.

HE WILL officially become district attorney on January 5.

His auburn-haired future bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anne Kotowicz of Burlingame and the late Mr. Kotowicz.

She is a graduate of Presentation Academy, San Francisco, and the University of San Francisco, and is manager of a slenderizing salon in Rheem. She is a former school teacher.

Mr. Nejedly is a graduate of the University of California with a bachelor of arts degree in business administration and a degree from the UC law school, Boalt Hall.

DURING WORLD War II he served as a Japanese language officer with the Far Eastern Air Force technical intelligence division.

He is the son of Mrs. Mary T. Nejedly of Brook Avenue, Walnut Creek.

The couple met at St. Mary's about five months ago.

Maid of honor will be Mrs. Frances Kamm, wife of William Kamm, the former famed Chicago Cubs third baseman.

Best man will be Dr. Ben Dykes of Walnut Creek.

The couple will later leave for a honeymoon at a New Mexico skiing resort.

Orinda Country Club Ball To Highlight Yule Season

Highlight of the Christmas social season at the Orinda Country Club will be the festive annual Christmas buffet gala December 14.

Seldom-seen decorations will give magnificence to a resplendent clubhouse, with a sunken garden ornamented with sculpted ice statues setting the motif.

THE ENTIRE CLUB will be festooned in red and white, with a Bavarian village surrounding a Christmas tree handicrafted from goose feathers.

Most of the decorations on the tree and details of the Bavarian village are imported objets d'art unique in the Bay Area.

"Socializing" will be the keynote of the affair with over 300 reservations having already been received. Over 700 are expected.

THE CHRISTMAS buffet is but one of the events planned for this month. Thursday ladies of the club will gather for the ladies Yuletide golf party and luncheon.

The New Year's eve dinner dance, which of course is formal, will be celebrated with pomp and elegance.

Dancing will again highlight the activities of the club that night when Gordy Heche and his orchestra will serenade the celebrants.

Jr., Sr. Suburbans Plan Yuletide Dance Tomorrow

A party mood pervades members of the Lafayette Suburban Woman's club and Lafayette Suburban Juniors as they look forward to their second annual Christmas Dance at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek tomorrow night.

The Mesdames Robert L. Bartak and Richard Stultz, Senior Club social chairmen, and Robert Heaton and Bruce Stringer, Junior Club social chairmen, are in charge of arrangements.

DECORATIONS, in a holiday motif, will include a flocked Christmas tree. The Mesdames William McCarrel and Herb Hurrell of the Junior Club are in charge of decor.

Senior Club members in charge of the midnight supper are the Mesdames Max W. Shields, chairman; Walter C. Kenzler, Alvin G. Medau, Robert L. Bartak, William Banks, Charles E. Kennett.

Many members will entertain guests with cocktail parties before the dance. Hosts at one gathering will be the Leo Schells. Guests will include the Messrs. and Mesdames William Guyon, William Witherwax, William McCarrell, Herb Russell, Robert L. Heaton, Howard Martin and William Hawkins.

The Charles E. Kennetts have and Mesdames Charles J. Donsent invitations to the Messrs. dero, Carl Boyd Larson, Walter C. Kenzler and Carl B. Huffaker.

Guests at the Warren E. Armstrong home will be the Messrs. and Mesdames Herbert M. Breckling, Max W. Shields, William Banks, Marcel Lescure and Alva McBroom.

THE GEORGE HABERS (she is president of the Seniors) and the R. Don Youngs will co-host a party at the Young residence in Lafayette. Their guests will include the Messrs. and Mesdames LeRoy Perdue, Denton Denny, Robert Trask, Guy Higgins and Thomas Teman.

The two clubs will again join forces Thursday at the Lafayette School Auditorium for a pot luck dinner Christmas party. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Barbara I. Gillard. She will demonstrate making of Christmas ornaments. The Garden Section will handle decorations; Mrs. Stuart C. Smith, program, and Mrs. Gordon E. Frazell, food.

The Lafayette Suburban Woman's Club is preparing a Christmas backet for a local needy family to be presented during the week before the holidays.

Immaculata Supper Held At Clubhouse

Members of the Immaculata Guild of St. Mary's Parish entertained their husbands and other guests at a pot-luck supper held at the Walnut Creek Women's Club on November 24.

Favorite recipes were prepared by the members at home and served under the supervision of Mrs. Arthur Schick and Mrs. R. F. Kroenenberg, who also planned table arrangements and settings.

Committee members who helped included Mesdames Marie Maser, John Howard, Charles Henry, Ralph Grey, Don MacLean, Harvey Woodmansee, Anna Trukositz, Henry Barg, William Griffith, Marie Jobes, and Clare Hay.

After the supper Mrs. Robert McBlaine, Guild president, welcomed the group and introduced Mrs. Robert McCarthy who presented Brother Xavier, vice-president in charge of development of St. Mary's College in Moraga.

His subject of "Enthusiasm" was both inspiring and entertaining to the 125 guests present.

The Guild's next event includes a Christmas breakfast to be held on Sunday at the Nut Bowl in Pleasant Hill. More than 50 guests are expected for this annual event.

Mothers to Hold Luncheon On Tuesday

The Alamo Mother's Club Annual Yule Luncheon will be held in the Alamo Women's Club Tuesday noon.

The fifth grade room mothers are in charge of the luncheon. Mrs. Donald Huovinen is chairman. Mrs. Blaine Dixon is in charge of decorations and Mrs. Robert Lehman is in charge of the food.

Other room mothers assisting are Mrs. Donald Gutleben, Mrs. Robert H. Clare and Mrs. Ernest Rodriques.

Entertainment will be furnished by the featured vocalist Mrs. D. A. Comstock who will be accompanied by Mrs. Donald Huovinen.

Devin Home in Moraga Site for Therapy Tea

A Mt. Diablo Therapy Center seminar tea was held recently at the home of Mrs. F. R. Devin in Moraga to acquaint women in the Moraga-Rheem Valley-Orinda area with services of the center, its rehabilitation program and functions of auxiliary units.

Greeting guests were the Mesdames Donald Johnson, chairman of the Unit Coordinating Council of the Center; Robert Schroder, chairman of new units; Stuart Loe, Norman Tieslau, Donald Allen and Robert Kuhn.

The Mesdames Lance Barden and Robert Case presided at the tea table. Unit hostesses were the Mesdames Stanley J. Majke, James Seaman and Aldo D. Vasconi.

Mrs. Juanita Benoy, Center administrator, spoke about its growth in the past nine years, the many types of therapy available, and the opportunity afforded a handicapped patient to become wholly or partially self-supporting as soon as he can be taught a particular type of work in the Sheltered Work Shop.

Attending were the Mesdames Edward Johannessen, Roland Forster, Harold Scott, James C. Nichol, Edward J. Turk, Thomas C. Peek, D. F. Swanson, Donald Thatcher, M. D. Carlile, W. L. Clearman, L. W. Chaney, L. J. Holmgren, Arnold R. Thompson, H. M. Polhamus, C. E. Toland, Jr., Charles F. Berlenbach, H. G. Preece, Gerald Clark, Ernest R. Reichmann, Charles W. Wright, J. T. Jackman and David F. Cotton.

Happy Valley Homes Open Tuesday for Holiday Tour

Tuesday is the day of Valley Art Center's Christmas tour. From 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. visitors can view a wide scope of holiday decorating from three homes; old-fashioned, contemporary and traditional.

The homes are in Happy Valley, Lafayette, and are to be opened to ticket holders only.

Mrs. E. F. Cardin Jr., CLifford 4-5312, 1232 Upper Happy Valley Road, is in charge of ticket reservations. Only 1000 tickets will be available.

EACH HOME will be the scene of festive gaiety. Mrs. Lyle Lund, chairman of hostesses, has asked many of Valley Arts members to assist her. Among them are Mesdames Frank Cashin, Howard Holmes, Fortney Stark, Stanley J. Coffee, Thomas Boothe, John Menz, Lester Scharmer, Oscar Larson and Neil Cornwall.

Mesdames Frank Malley, Stanley MacPherson, Gordon Ainsworth, Richard Johnston, Thomas Tryon, Charles Nunes, Howard Stafford, Burchard Styles, William Vogt, Stanley Bush, Ernest Dix and William Ornduff will assist hostesses at the Funk home.

THE TRADITIONAL environ of the Moore home will be hostessed by Mesdames John Martsolf, George Monheit, A. P. Merril, Frank Clapp, Henry White, Alden Bloxham, Bruce Anderson, Richard Ward, Lyle Lund, James Ford, George Hanson, Howard Converse, Paul Cooper, T. C. Spencer, Fletcher Taylor, John Lindberg, James Morris, Robert Rack and Mel Neilsen.

At the Edward Pike Jr. home, Mesdames John Martsolf, Glen Max and John Athanson have designed "Christmas at Grandmother's," a warm, old-fashioned kind of decor recalling sounds and smells of grandmother's kitchen Christmas morning.

AT THE W. F. FUNK home, one will immediately sense the contemporary, sophisticated simplicity of a beautiful, modern setting. Designing of the elegant, gilded ornaments and unique holiday pieces has been through creative efforts of Mesdames William Wilkinson and Howard Converse.

Because of her fine appreciation of things traditional, Mrs. James Moore is opening her home and displaying her personal collection of ornaments and Christmas objets o'art. Mulled cider and special holiday cookies from recipes of Valley Art members will be

It seems most fitting to conclude the 1958 program of Valley Art Center with this project, which combines social aspects with the artistry of many members in decorating, in different motifs, three different types of homes," said Elizabeth Johnson, publicity chairman.

Crusade is 74 Per Cent To Its Goal

Gift donations totaling $115,576 or 74 per cent of the Central Contra Costa United Crusade goals has been reached to date according to Jack Pedder of Lafayette, Central Contra Costa coordinator.

"During the next few weeks we hope to push these figures much higher. Clean-up squads of volunteers in the various divisions are still busily trying to complete their solicitations for this year," Pedder said.

"Volunteers have been wonderful about sticking to the job despite the distractions of a heated election and holidays.

"With the extension of our drive into December, we hope to have the balance of the badly needed funds in shortly."

School personnel throughout Central Contra Costa made an outstanding contribution of $11,539.40 or 96.1 per cent.

In Walnut Creek the residential division under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. Frank Stauffer raised $4,278.47 or 91 per cent, Pedder pointed out.

"With these outstanding examples of what can be done by concentrating on the job until completed, we believe other divisions will do likewise and raise our goal to a much higher level," he added.

Cancer Society Holiday Cards Are Available

Recent research progress gives reason for hope in the fight against leukemia—cancer of the blood producing system — which took 19 lives in Contra Costa County last year, Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin, president of the county branch of the American Cancer Society, said this week.

Although there is still no known cure for the disease in humans, many scientists now feel that the first big chemical victory against cancer will involve the treatment of leukemia, Dr. Pellegrin said.

Children under 15 and aging adults are those presently under the greatest attack from leukemia, and the stealthy killer is striking more men than women as it has increased in incidence nationally in the past 25 years.

BECAUSE THERE is evidence suggesting that leukemia may be caused by a virus, virus research has become increasingly important in the fight against this form of cancer.

Dr. Pellegrin said that funds contributed by Contra Costa county residents in last year's cancer crusade are now supporting some significant research in this direction, being conducted at the University of California by the Nobel Prize winning chemist, Dr. Wendell M. Stanley.

Dr. Pellegrin urged that persons who are planning to adopt the popular new custom of sending a gift to further the work of the Contra Costa Cancer Society, in lieu of the usual Christmas greeting cards, should do so as soon as possible so that the seasonal notification cards for their friends may be obtained in time.

THE LOCAL CANCER society this year is sponsoring two attractive holiday greeting cards which will notify recipients that the sender has made a Christmas contribution to vital cancer research, education and service.

One card is white with traditional green design and the other white with a contemporary red design. Both may be mailed as regulation post cards. Approximately one week is required for printing, however, and orders should be received immediately for sufficiently early delivery, the cancer president said.

Orders may be made by telephone or in writing to the Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society, at county headquarters at 2030 North Main Street in Walnut Creek.

The purchaser may determine the price of the cards beyond the nominal charge necessary of $10 per 100 cards. Dr. Pellegrin suggested a guide might be the amount ordinarily spent for holiday greetings.

Rites Held For C. S. McNeil

Funeral services were held November 26 at the Chapel in the Valley, Lafayette, for C. Stewart McNeil of Camino Tassajara, Danville.

Mr. McNeil passed away November 24 after an extended illness. He was born in Lafayette in 1891. He owned and operated a dairy in Lafayette and Orinda until he retired in 1949. His parents had one of the first general stores in Lafayette, located where Lafayette Toyland now stands.

Since he retired in 1949 he has lived in Danville. He leaves his wife, Mary R. McNeil and one son, Robert T. McNeil; a daughter-in-law, Barbara and three grandchildren.

He was a veteran of World War I and a member of Lafayette American Legion Post 517. Reverend Henry Paige White of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church officiated at the ceremonies. Interment was at Lafayette Cemetery.

Put an electric blanket on your gift list

A good night's rest makes a wonderful Christmas present . . . and it's yours to give with an electric blanket. Tossers and turners (and everybody else) sleep better under electric blankets. Here's why.

Just dial the sleeping comfort that suits you best. Then turn over and z-zzZ-Z-z. Luxurious warmth spreads evenly over the entire bed. No matter how cold the bedroom gets, your blanket automatically adjusts itself to keep the temperature you set. And you sleep better under one light blanket!

P.S. Because electricity is cheap in California, an electric blanket costs just a penny a night to operate. So Give Better . . . Electrically!

Barb Jensen Ray Capra's Bride-Elect

A dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. George N. Jensen at their Happy Valley home was the occasion for the engagement announcement of their daughter, Barbara Joy Jensen, to Raymond L. Capra of Lafayette.

Barb and Ray attended school in Lafayette and both are graduates of Acalanes High.

Barb is studying dental assistance at Diablo Valley College. She has a brother, Paul.

Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Capra. He is now attending the University of California, College of Engineering. He has an older sister, Mrs. John Paulino of Hayward, and a younger sister, Marilou.

Drive carefully. The life you save may be yours.

Local Clipped Wingers To Fly High Tomorrow

It will be "Christmas on the Lake" for Clipped Wings members at their annual holiday dinner dance tomorrow at Lake Merritt Hotel in Oakland.

A national organization of exstewardesses of United Air Lines, Clipped Wings projects benefit national and local associations for retarded children.

Mrs. John E. Tsarnas, East Bay chapter president, and dance chairman, announced the final arrangements at a meeting at the Walnut Creek home of Mrs. William Morrison.

The East Bay chapter of CW, granted a charter in 1958, will be hostess for the first time to Palo Alto, San Mateo (including San Francisco), and Marin County chapter.

DANCING DURING and after dinner will be to the music of Jack Fina and his orchestra.

Mrs. Clayton Russell, historian and decorations chairman, has arranged traditional holiday furbishings of dinner tables, with jet air-age accents. An example: A model airliner soaring overhead with mistletoe trailing in the airstream.

Mrs. Daniel Lasar reported that invitations were sent three weeks ago to co-workers for ARC and to friends with other airlines, as well as to members of Clipped Wings.

Mrs. John Norris, vice-president and reservations chairman, is arranging table groupings. Mrs. William Dear, Jr., is handling ticket requests.

Many East Bay members and their husbands are opening their homes for pre-dance parties. Meeting at the San Lorenzo home of Mr. and Mrs. Tsarnas for cocktails will be the Messrs. and Mesdames Alvin A. Cleary, San Leandro; Don Swanson, Moraga; Don Wagener, Palo Alto; Joseph Bosza (Connie is national editor for Clipped Wings), Los Altos; Charles Barnett, San Carlos.

NO-HOST TABLES will be the rule at the hotel dining room. One of these will include the Messrs. and Mesdames Jesse Braucht, Terry Haws, Joseph E. Lahey and William Fletcher.

Several more parties are in the making. In Orinda a group will gather in the Sleepy Hollow home of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Huntley. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bell, Hidden Valley, Lafayette, plan to be host and hostess to another group.

Seminar Tea Is Held by Therapy Group

A Mt. Diablo Therapy Center Seminar Tea was held recently at the home of Mrs. F. R. Devin in Moraga.

Purpose was to acquaint the women in the Moraga-Rheem Valley-Orinda area with information about the services of the Center, its rehabilitation program and the functions of the auxiliary units.

There are now 14 adult units and five junior units which support the Center financially and with volunteer services.

Greeting the guests were Mrs. Donald Johnson, chairman of the Unit Coordinating Council of the Center and Mrs. Robert Schroder, chairman of new units, assisted by Mesdames Stuart Loe, Norman Tieslau, Donald Allen and Robert Kuhn.

Mrs. Lance Barden and Mrs. Robert Case presided at the tea table. Unit hostesses were Mesdames Stanley J. Majke, James Seaman and Aldo D. Vasconi.

Mrs. Juanita Benoy, admin- the guests of the growth of the istrator of the Center, spoke to Center in the past nine years.

Attending the tea were Mesdames Johannessen, Roland Forster, Harold Scott, James C. Nichol, Edw. J. Turk, Thomas C. Peek, D. F. Swanson, Donald Thatcher, M. D. Carlile, W. L. Clearman, L. W. Chaney, L. J. Holmgren, Arnold R. Thompson. Mesdames H. M. Polhamus, C. E. Toland, Jr., Charles F. Berlenbach, H. G. Preece, Gerald Clark, Ernest R. Reichmann, Charles W. Wright, J. T. Jackson, David F. Cotton.

These women toured the Therapy Center the following week and met again on November 6 at the home of Mrs. Lance Barden in Orinda for luncheon.

Delta Zetas to Consider Gift Inspirations

The Christmas meeting of the Mount Diablo Alumnae chapter of Delta Zeta will be held on Wednesday at in the evening at the home of Mrs. Robert T. Adams, 3146 Maryola Court, Lafayette.

"Christmas Gift Ideas" will be the topic of the "brainstorming" session which will be led by Mrs. William Smith of Concord.

Christmas carols, sung by the members, will add to the holiday spirit. Instead of exchanging gifts, the members will bring canned goods which will be given to the Volunteer Bureau to be used for a needy family in the area.

Mrs. Juel Lien will be the cohostess. All members in the area are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Persons planning to attend should notify Mrs. Adams or Mrs. Lien.

Your local merchant shops at home too. When you support him, the money stays in the community and we all benefit.

Scots Drop Hooper to Alby. 36-24

The Piedmont Highlanders opened their hoop season when they hosted Albany High November 25 and found themselves losing in the varsity game, 36-24.

Albany, playing ball control had things pretty much its own way, taking a 13-5 first quarter lead, and left the floor at half time out in front 16-9.

Both teams substituted freely the rest of the way.

Steve Wilcox, Steve Rickett and Rod Church hit 4 points each for Piedmont while Albany's Don Biagi bagged game honors with 12.

The Piedmont Bees turned the tables as they won 30-26 with Ed Volkwein hitting for what proved to be a lucky "13."

The Highlanders took to the court again last Friday when they dropped a 46-34 decision to St. Joseph's High.

Eker-Outer Won By Matadors

The Miramonte Matadors made their debut in the 1958-59 basketball season November 26 when they played the DeAnza Dons at Richmond and wound up with a come-from-behind 47-39 varsity win after taking the opening Bee game 38-30.

The Matador varsity had problems in the first half as they had difficulty in getting organized, with loose floor play and inability to hit the hoop with any consistency.

As a matter of record they trailed 15-8 at the quarter and 25-16 at the half. At one point in the second quarter they were down 12 points.

THE SECOND half proved to be a reversal of form as the Matadors went to work with a vengeance to roll to the win.

Guard Bill Houston, playing a terrific floor game, coupled with some sharpshooting by forward Bob Hudson, who netted 3 quick field goals, set the Orinda Club on fire.

Center John Coffey found the range with 10 points on 3 field goals and 4 free throws in the period, putting the Mats in front as they netted 22 points in the quarter and grabbed a 38-30 lead.

The final canto found each club scoring 9 points as Miramonte maintained the 8 point margin for the win.

COFFEY TOOK game scoring honors with 20 points (8 field goals, 4 free throws), while Hudson with 12 (4 field goals, 4 free throws) was runnerup in the Miramonte scoring column.

Miramonte shot 34 per cent forward, Jack Gilbert, netted 11 from the floor, making 15 of 44 points (2 field goals, 7 free shots while DeAnza hit on but throws) to pace his club to a 13 in 60 tries. 37-30 win after trailing 11-16 at

In the Bee game a Matador the half.

Miramonte Wrestlers Set For Veterans' Grappling

The Miramonte Matadors take to the mat game for the second season and they boast a good nucleus of veterans around which Coach Bob Brooks hopes to build a top squad.

The team at present has about 45 members on hand and from lettermen in Bob Davis, senior at 127; Gail Dishong, junior, 154; Steve Abbott, sophomore, 133 and Buddy Boeger, heavyweight, will find strength.

The team suffered a loss when Milt Blake, another letterman at 175 transferred to San Ramon High.

Other standouts are Keith Trailkill, sophomore; Bruce Shaeffer, senior; John Roberts, senior; Mason Fries, sophomore and Ron Brown.

The Matadors open Wednesday at Acalanes when they meet the Dons with matches starting at 3:15.

Casaba Jamboree Starts Next Week

The basketball fans of the Foothill Division will get a good early season look as to how the clubs stack up at this stage of the game next week end when the Miramonte High School holds its Second Annual Basketball Jamboree.

Miramonte, the host school, has invited the other members of the Foothill League to take part—namely Acalanes, Las Lomas, San Ramon and Piedmont.

San Ramon Wolves Topple Bennies with 36-24 Win

The San Ramon Wolves won their openers in varsity and Bee play last week when they toppled Benicia and Amador High.

The Benicia game, played at the arsenal city, found the Wolves in fine fettle for the opener November 25. They notched an impressive 36-24 win.

Coach Bob Vincent was pleased with his charges on the whole, although he noted shooting was spotty as expected for first games.

BENICIA TRAILED 26-22 at the half, but pulled up to within 2 points of the Wolves in the third quarter when Erik Kellner, ace senior forward, hit 2 buckets and a free throw to put the Danville five out in front to stay.

Gary Scott potted a field goal and a charity toss to widen the gap and insure the win. Scott wound up with scoring honors on 21 points while Willie Castillo netted 18 for the losers.

Other top marksmen for San Ramon were Kellner, 13, and Mike Oaks, 12.

In the Bee game the Danville club copped a 41-37 win paced by center Bob Gurley, who tanked 18.

THE WOLVES took to the road to register another pair of wins. This time the varsity won 38-21

'Let right be done!'

WE are the more than 300 employees of the Macy's-owned Lasalle department store in Toledo, Ohio. We now face a second holiday season, a second year on the picket line in defense of our unions and our right to bargain collectively.

In the beginning, more than a year ago, we asked modest improvement in wages, welfare and working conditions. Our employer — a division of the giant R. H. Macy chain — replied with a frontal attack on our very right just to sit at the bargaining table — despite a history of 21 years of fair and usually friendly collective bargaining relations.

Ever since, down the long months, Macy's has evaded any obligation to bargain with our unions by a shameful legal device — a device which was labeled by President Eisenhower as "licensing union-busting", a device which has been unsparingly condemned by fair-minded management as well as labor, a device which on its face is plainly a union-smashing tool.

To this "union-busting" purpose, the R. H. Macy Co. can bring to bear the giant financial resources of one of the nation's largest retail chains — the resources of stores owned by it in cities clear across the land from New York to the Bay Area. The Macy's that operates a huge department store in or near your own community is the same employer who is trying to destroy our union in Toledo.

By its legal tactics, Macy's has made clear its union-busting intentions. Through its vast financial resources, it maintains an almost endless pressure to accomplish that purpose.

Our major resource in our fight to save our unions and regain our bargaining rights has been in the help of many thousands of fair-minded shoppers wherever Macy's does business.

Will you help us to win simple justice? You can — by refusing to shop at Macy's until right has been done.

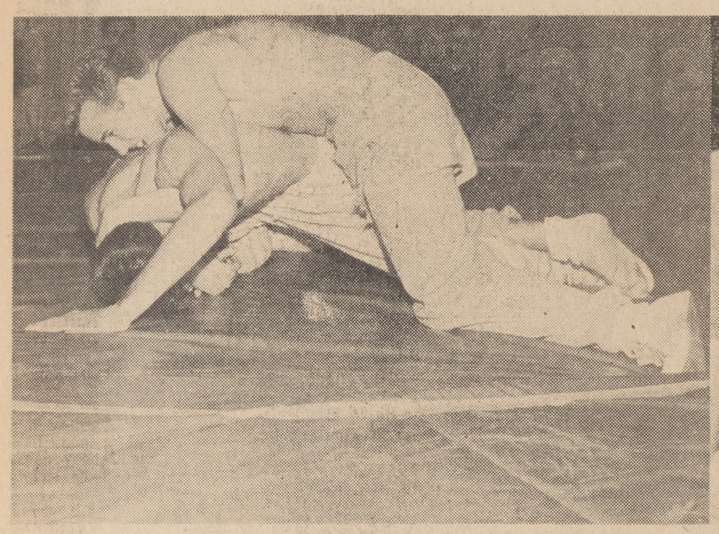
The 'Mat' Game Invades County



COACH GEORGE GALLI of Pleasant Hill High will be using Jim Hinds and Don Kunkel as a tough combination to beat when the Rams take to the mats. (By the way, Kunkel is on top) —Sun photo by Richard Morse

THE DONS WILL go into action with team members such as Jim Polk, 128 pound champ, Jim Holden and Bob Murello. Polk is on top of Holden and Murello looks on. —Sun photo by Mattson

Rassling Newest Sport In League; Fans Increase

By ERWIN MATTSON

Word has finally come through that Piedmont High will compete in varsity baseball this spring. The issue was in doubt for some time as Piedmont's areas for baseball are extremely limited.

So limited, in fact, that they won't compete in Junior Varsity ball, and will take to the road for all of their games.

Piedmont incidentally plays all day games in basketball. Other clubs play Friday night ball, which gives adults a chance to see games.

WRESTLING, the newest sport in the league, finds all but Piedmont competing. The sport is fast becoming a growing one and the fan clientele is increasing as they begin to understand the game.

Too many people get their impressions of wrestling from TV, which shows the so-called "pro" game.

A better description would be "vaudeville"—in which there is usually a villain and a hero—or would "soap opera" be more descriptive?

Amateur wrestling is very closely regulated and is a sport which is a test of skill more than it is of strength.

It's a game you have to watch and study to understand, and usually takes several observations to get interested in.

Early returns are in as far as basketball is concerned, and indications are that the Foothill League will be a strong one.

Some members of the Contra Costa division refer to the Foothill Division as the "Ivy League."

THE SPORTSWRITER at the other end of the county who first used the term had better take a quick look:

In football—it's only a matter of opinion—my guess is that Las Lomas would have swept the Contra Costa League without defeat.

Basketball is still in the early stages but San Ramon, Miramonte, Las Lomas and Acalanes all appear to be better-than-average clubs—it will be interesting to see how the inter-division games come out.

San Ramon Fields Team

San Ramon High will have a wrestling team for the first time this year and there have been about 40 hopefuls on hand under the watchful eye of Coach Marv Ashby.

Nightly workouts have found the squad rounding into shape and matches were to get under way this week, with California School for the Blind furnishing the opposition Tuesday at San Ramon. Next Tuesday the team meets Castro Valley Junior Varsity at Castro Valley.

The only veteran on hand is Milt Blake, a junior who transferred from Miramonte High and rates as a top contender in the 175 pound class.

Others who have looked good are Stuart Clark, a junior, at 120; Tom Schmitt, senior, at 154, and Gary Johnson, senior, who rates tops in the 133 pound division.

Grunt-Groaner Squad Sweats Out Ram, Poet Win

The Acalanes wrestling team opened the 1958-59 season in auspicious style November 26 when they tripped the Pleasant Hill Rams 26-21 and then came back to defeat Tennyson High of Hayward 36-8.

The Don-Ram match at Pleasant Hill was the opener for both teams.

Feature event found Richard Polk of Acalanes defeating Glidwell in the 133-pound division by a decision, 10-3. Polk was last year's 120-pound county title holder while Glidwell won the 127-pound crown.

IN COPPING the win Acalanes won six matches and the Rams 4. The 103-pound division and the 191-pound match wound up draws.

The Dons cinched the win when heavyweight Denny Toll won by a fall.

In the Tennyson High meet Acalanes trailed 5-3 at the end of the first two matches but when Paul Gavey came up with a win in the 120-pound class it put the Dons ahead to stay, as they wound up with the one-sided win.

The Dons won 10 of the 12 matches with Jim Holden at 165, Paul Arrigo at 175, and heavyweight Toll winning by falls.

THE DONS host Pacifica from West Pittsburg at Acalanes this afternoon with the opening match at 3:15 p.m.

Next week it's a pair of practice matches, with Las Lomas at Acalanes Tuesday and next Friday with Miramonte meeting the Dons Wednesday.

Tomorrow the Don novices will take part in a novice meet being held at Concord. Matches start at 10:30 a.m. and run throughout the day.

High Hopes Expressed by Galloping Gael Supporters

With high expectations for the coming season, the Galloping Gaels of Saint Mary's College are putting finishing touches to the machine that is determined to unseat perennial Kingpin of the West Coast Athletic Conference, U.S.F.

The twice runner-up Gaels opened their season against Sacramento State College at Sacramento Monday.

RANKED BY MANY sporting magazines in their pre-season selections of the top 20 teams of the nation, the Gaels faced a Sacramento State team which local writers have tabbed one of their strongest in years.

Starters from last year's squad Bob Dold (5.11), Joe Barry (6.3), LaRoy Doss (6.5) and Dick Sigaty (6.5), and reserve forward Larry Brennan (6.1) are returning to give the team much experience.

Sigaty was named all-WCAC and all-Northern California, and Barry and Doss were all-Northern California honorable mention.

MUCH DEPTH will be given to the squad by the nucleus of last year's undefeated (17-0) frosh squad. Led by Tom Meschery (6.6) and Al Claiborne (6.9), the sophs will give the team added strength in height and bench support.

Some of the pre-season strength of the Gaels was lost, however, when junior Erv Blue, starting forward from last season, was benched by the doctors for a heart ailment. Also out for the season are guards Joe Monson and Greg Johnson, who figured to give the team much depth in this position.

The starting unit consists of forwards Tom Meschery, a soph, and senior LaRoy Doss; center, soph Al Claiborne; and a backcourt combination of senior co-captains Dick Sigaty and Bob Dold.

Rated an All-American potential, Meschery led the frosh squad in scoring and rebounding last season. Doss, last year's center, has been moved to forward to take advantage of his shooting abilities.

He led the team last year with a 13.8 point average. Claiborne, the first "big" center to wear the red and blue in a long time, is expected to give added strength to the Gael rebounding and defense.

The guards, Sigaty and Dold, team up to give the team great outside shooting. Both are deadly with jumps and sets. Sigaty is also rated as a possible all-American. Dold possesses an uncanny jump and is a great team leader.

COACH JIM WEAVER also has a good bench to develop. With veterans Barry (6.3) and Brennan (6.1) and sophs Gene Womack (6.0) ,Joe Gardere (5.9), Wes Tamm (6.5), Jack Dold (6.1) and Tom Cleary (6.7), the bench possesses height, shooting, mobility, and all have the potential to break into the lineup.

The main factor this season will be whether or not the sophs have enough experience for big time basketball. If they come through, the Gaels will be a contender for NCAA championship because they have all the necessary elements of a great team—size, speed, height, shooting, rebounding, defense, and bench.

Cagers Going Into Swing For Miramonte Jamboree

The basketball season goes into full swing this week and next as all clubs go into action.

The Foothill Division will be pointing for the Miramonte Jamboree Friday and Saturday, December 12-13, as all members take part and trophies as well as prestige will be in the offing.

PIEDMONT RESTS today then plays Hayward at Piedmont Tuesday before heading for the Miramonte Tournament.

Coach Bob Vincent has his San Ramon High cagers testing Clayton Valley this afternoon at 3:30 and then plays Liberty High at Brentwood Tuesday

The Clayton Valley quint will move into the Miramonte Jamboree the following Friday and Saturday.

LAS LOMAS takes to the hardwoods as they play Oakland High at Oakland in a 3:15 go this afternoon.

They go back and try Clayton Valley at home Tuesday in another 3:15 game before entering the Miramonte round-robin play.

Acalanes also takes part in the Miramonte Jamboree, but in the meantime, they play El Cerrito this afternoon at El Cerrito at 3:15.

TUESDAY THE DONS play at Pittsburg High in another 3:15 tilt.

Pleasant Hill meets the Livermore Cowboys tonight at Livermore in a 7 o'clock game.

The only varsity game on tap for the Knights is next Friday when they face Amador High of Pleasanton with the Bees opening at 7:30.

There's Fine Food, Drinks For Everyone

BY THE DINER

When it comes to these busy holidays, there is nothing like a dinner out to give the whole family that relaxed feeling.

The kids love the chance to visit the many hours, colorful restaurants we have in the area and they are always welcome.

AND NEEDLESS to say, mother appreciates plenty the opportunity to eat some tasty, special dish and not even have to give a second thought to those piles of dishes that always seem to accumulate.

And this is the perfect season for dining out, too, because most stores are open evenings, and the family can make a real party out of Christmas shopping . . . and it's a lot easier and a lot more fun after a pleasant, relaxed meal in charming surroundings.

At John Crosetti's and Joe Bernardi's Wagon Ho in Walnut Creek near the Broadway Shopping Center, many a shopper has been seen during the past week taking advantage of the delicious luncheon special and the popular dining spot.

Two price ranges and, of course, always two entrees to suit the most particular customer.

JOE AND JOHNNIE are on hand to even help store a few of those holiday bundles to make lunch even more pleasant. And if those toes get a little sore, there's nothing like a cocktail to relax aching muscles.

Went to Mel's beautiful and colorful Walnut Room last night to catch a few moments of Mary Jane Bate's harmonies on the Hammond organ.

Mary Jane is no newcomer to the entertainment circuit as she is well known throughout the Bay Area.

HER LAST stint was at the Villa de la Paix.

Natch, cocktail hour is still being celebrated at Mel's with your favorite drink reduced in price along with goodies to nibble on between 2 and 5 every afternoon.

There's been a change at Mel's, too, with the resignation of Roger Chase, mixologist. He will be replaced by "Vegas" Vic. If it's table service you're after pretty Rosemary Platt and Pat Goodwin will be on hand to take care of your refreshment needs at Mel's.

PAUL'S OF MARTINEZ, which has been closed on Monday nights for many years except on occasions when its facilities are required for large banquets, will be the scene of a testimonial dinner for Congressman John F. Baldwin December 15.

The affair, non-political, is being sponsored by the directors of the Contra Costa County Development Association, and the tariff will be $3.75 a plate.

Reservations are being made by Baldwin's friends through the Development Association at 838 Escobar Street, Martinez, and the deadline has been set for 5 p.m. December 12.

Baldwin is scheduled to leave for Washington shortly after Christmas to be present for the convening of the 86th Congress.

BY THE BY, just in case we happen to miss any of you fine restaurant owners or tavern keepers, please give a buzz to The Diner at The Sun so we can make mention of your establishment.

Don't forget, call the Diner at The Sun, YE 4-5000 or AT 4-4444 anytime.

If you prefer drop a card to The Diner at PO Box 123, Pleasant Hill; or PO Box 1038, Walnut Creek; or PO Box 375, Lafayette or PO Box 147, Orinda.

See you soon. . .

Heidis to Frolic At Yule Party

Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. M. Matson, 1135 Camino Vallecito, Lafayette. At this Christmas party meeting no business will be conducted.

Mrs. A. S. Hickey, director of chapters, will be a guest. She received a check from proceeds of the fall party, "Through the Looking Glass". Gifts for the babies of the Children's Home will also be presented.

Hostesses for the 12:30 p.m. party will be the Mesdames J. L. Hicks and J. Wayland Barnette.

THERE'S NO CONFUSION in Santa's mind, even though he has to deal with such charming twins as Kathleen (left) and Maureen Murphy. The twins, three years old, are giving Santa the word on what would be nice in their Christmas stockings. Santa maintains his office in the North Pole House on the third floor of Capwell's, Broadway—Walnut Creek, where he talks with youngsters every day and from 10 a.m. on, and until 8:30 p.m. during night openings. Broadway Center Open Nights 'Til Christmas

It will be the easiest thing in the world to shop in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, from now until Christmas, because the stores will be open almost any time you care to drop in, according to George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

Besides being open six days a week, Broadway stores will be open this evening, (December 5) and starting next Monday, December 8, they will stay open every night, Monday through Friday, until Christmas.

"THIS WILL give the whole family that chance to go shopping together, to confer on the difficult gift for Aunt Dolores, and that particular problem with Uncle Charlie," Webster said.

Or, as is more likely the case, it will give Father a chance to slip off by himself and pick up that special gift for each member of his family—the one he'll keep secret until Christmas present time rolls around, Webster added.

"SO REMEMBER, no matter when you find it convenient to do your Christmas shopping, the chances are Broadway stores will be open, and they have even more complete selections of merchandise than ever before.

"There is plenty of parking, too!" he concluded.

Miss Soares is A Dream Girl

Miss Nancy Soares, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Soares, 2101 Hillview Drive, Walnut Creek, has been selected as a semi-finalist in the Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity's Dream Girl Contest at the University of California.

A member of the Chi Omega sorority, Miss Soares was one of 20 Cal co-eds presented to the public at the fraternity's open house after the California-UCLA football game.

With over 1000 ballots cast, Miss Soares was among the top ten in the voting and became one of the semi-finalists.

Each of the semi-finalists will be presented with her portrait, taken by a leading Berkeley photographer.

Two Tourneys Tennis Season

Another successful tennis season, sponsored by the Walnut Creek Recreation Department, came to a close with final lessons for children and adults held at the Las Lomas High School courts.

Highlight of the season was the first annual Junior Tennis Tournament held the latter part of August, and the second annual Tennis Tournament for those 15 years of age and up, held early in September.

Both were sponsored by the Walnut Creek Recreation Department and Kiwanis Club and both had entries from throughout central Contra Costa County.

Instructor was Jim Snowden.

Mrs. Ruth Wallis, director of recreation, said the tennis program will resume in April and advance notices of dates and classes will be made public.

Instructor Snowden suggested that all those who participated this year, practice when they can with weather permitting, and be prepared for a "bigger and better" season next April.

Why Not 'Gift Wrap' The Junior Member . . . ?

The approaching Yuletide season offers an excellent opportunity to "gift-wrap" Junior. This, according to the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, does not mean packaging the youngster in paper festooned with holly twigs and red ribbon.

Rather, they suggest, wrap him in Ivy—Ivy styled, that is—garments that he will like for at least two seasons.

First, he will get a kick—as all youngsters do—out of looking like the rest of his crowd, while just a little bit different as a result of his own special touches.

Second, he'll get extra enjoyment out of looking like a miniature edition of Dad, big brother or his favorite football star, as he will when wearing them.

And there's a third factor—it is to the credit of his parents when a youngster looks his best and does his best.

Of course, the choice in clothing gifts for the youngsters on your list is practically unlimited. Outerwear garments such as duffle coats, suburban coats, zipper jackets, hooded parkas and quilted or fleece lined coats will keep him snug and warm

Swendig Speaks To PH 'Seniors'

Members of the Pleasant Hill Senior Citizens Club enjoyed their first meeting together, after the Summer Vacation, November 25.

Jimmie E. Swendig, superintendent of the Pleasant Hill Recreation and Park District, was guest speaker for the afternoon. Swendig said he was glad to participate in any way to further the activities for The Senior Citizens, as the Club was quite necessary to give recreation to the older resident. The club is sponsored by the Recreation District.

A temporary program, food and transportation committee was formed for the next two meetings.

Pack Honors Presented

At its monthly meeting in the multi-use room of the Oak Park School, Cub Scout Pack 209 of Pleasant Hill presented a display of their recent scouting activities and crafts.

Cubmaster Anthony White welcomed into the pack a new member, Donald Darst, with the rank of Bobcat.

He presented wolf badges to Allan Frederickson and Tim Evoniuk; a bear badge and a bear gold arrow to David Schoenfelder; a wolf silver arrow to Mark Rush and to Jim Wise; two bear silver arrows to Mike Fieldhouse; and a bear gold arrow and a bear silver to Tracy Hancock.

John Edelen received a one-year service pin, Bobby Rogers and Mike Fieldhouse denner stripes, and Blake Herod assistant denner stripes.

White announced the winners of the prizes for most sales in the pack's annual money raising "Peanut Sale." Donald Burror, Den 4, received first prize. Bill Senecal of the Webelos den, second prize; and Steve Young, den 1, third prize.

Den 1 won the "Cubby" for the best inspection, and the Webelos den won the pack pennant for best parent attendance at the pack meeting.

Your local merchant shops at home too. When you support him, the money stays in the community and we all benefit.

Therapy Center Meet Planned

The annual meeting of the members of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will be held at 8 p.m., Tuesday, at 100 Golf Club Road, Pleasant Hill.

All members are invited to attend.

Free X-Rays

Foodhandlers may obtain chest X-rays to fulfill the requirements for their individual health permits.

Free chest X-rays are provided by the County Health Department as a part of its Tuberculosis Control Program.

Funds, Toys Needed by Auxiliary for Children

"To be away from family and friends during the holiday season is a sad experience for any child," said Mrs George Maxon, president of the Crackerjack Unit of Juvenile Hall Auxiliary and county Christmas drive chairman.

"To the troubled children at Juvenile Hall and for hardship cases of wards in foster homes, Christmas could be an especially unhappy time.

"The Crackerjack Unit of the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary wants to make sure that every such child receives at least one important gift.

"The auxiliary would like to give each teenage girl an orlon sweater, each teenage boy a sport shirt and wallet, and children under 13 new toys."

Contra Costa County merchants have been contacted, she said, by the Christmas shopping chairman who will obtain merchandise at wholesale.

"Some of the merchandise will be purchased at a tremendous discount," Mrs. Maxon added. Contributions from individuals or organizations will be appreciated.

"For $5 each teenage boy will receive a sport shirt and wallet worth $10, and every girl will receive a sweater worth $10.

"TOYS FOR children under 12 have yet to be found at wholesale. However, toys can be purchased at a 20 per cent discount. Cost will depend on the toy selected as appropriate for each. "I hope the community will contribute some, toys, whether they are new or used."

Persons wishing to contribute may send donations to Juvenile Hall Auxiliary, Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez.

Should more items than needed be received they will be used as birthday gifts throughout the year. The Auxiliary supplies a gift for every youngster who has a birthday while at the hall.

ALSO NEEDED by Juvenile Hall are musical instruments to be loaned to wards, a portable 3 speed record player, camping equipment, nine foot clothing racks, wagons, tricycles and bicycles.

Members of the Crackerjack shopping committee are the Mesdames Philip Hasford, AT 3-8524; William Peterson, AT 3-6000; Forest Baker, AT 3-8957, and Maxon, AT 3-3310.

New Decor Brightens WC Streets

Walnut Creek, with its modern stores and shops, was made for Christmas time—and for that reason the beautiful overhead holiday decorations installed last week look entirely natural.

From now through New Year's, shoppers and visitors driving through the city will be greeted by stately silver wreaths, and giant bells, the symbols of that happiest time of the year.

Main Street, Broadway and Locust Street are glittering not only overhead, but even more important, in the show windows, carefully arranged to display the best of gifts and useful items.

It is the store windows and counters which will bring shoppers from all parts of Contra Costa County — those shoppers who want the highest quality items at the low prices which careful selection and expert merchandising makes possible.

So, come and see Walnut Creek in its new Christmas setting! It will be fun, whether you shop, stop and refresh, or just cruise about!

Seniors to View Film

Senior Citizens of Walnut Creek will view to color films at their Thursday meeting in the east room of the Walnut Creek Recreational Center.

The films to be shown at 1 p.m. after the noon dessert hour are "A Touch of Mabic," depicting gift wrapping for all occasions and home decorations for the various holidays, and "The Living Circle," a film graphically describing the economical interdependence of North America and Latin America.

This Gift Comes Made to Size, and No Problems!

Is your man a jewel among men? If he is, suggests the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, give him a gift of jewelry this Christmas—a jewel box to help him keep his links, tie bars and accessories handy, or even a jewel box filled with a good selection of handsome yet inexpensive masculine accessories.

No size problem here — cuff links fit the shirt regardless of size and tie bars or tie tacks hold the cravat regardless of shape.

He may like the stark simple modern designs in link and tie holder sets; he may dote on free-form abstract models; or he may treasure the replicas of antique pieces that have been so skillfully reproduced this year.

In any event, there are a multitude of ideas in the jewelry department from which you can make your choice.

Colorful stones and glowing pearls are also used to decorate some of the jewel sets.

The jewel boxes come in sizes to meet the needs of the ardent collector as well as the fellow who prefers just a few favorite sets. They are fitted for key chains, collar pins and knick-knacks, too.

Trapeze Responsible For Comeback Of Petticoats

The stir caused by the stylish trapeze and other new fashions in outer wear is being echoed in lingerie styles this winter.

One indication of this is the big comeback of petticoats, notably the special petticoats required under the trapeze.

The newness of this silhouette, which starts from a narrow top and slopes out at the sides to a moderately wide hemline, is in its restrained fullness and smoothness of line. It's almost like a funnel in shape, with fullness accelerated only at the back.

The old bouffant petticoats don't meet the under-shaping needs of this type of garment. Hence, the popularity of the new petticoats and, also, the new trapeze slips.

The latter, for wear under one-piece trapeze dresses, have fitted bust sections and shaped, paneled skirts which are flat in front and back.

Trapeze petticoats are worn under two-piece dresses and suits. There are many variations, since there are full and less-full skirts. Some need really stiff but shaped layers underneath, while others require shaped layers in softer fabrics.

Chemise lines are repeated in straight, short slips, with such variations as high waists and "firecracker" flounces. Lace trimmings call attention to hem-lines.

When It's Relaxing Time The Right Clothes Help . . .

The American man's home is his castle, but he is indeed fortunate that he doesn't have to relax in a costume of mail and armor.

According to the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, you can make the lord of your manor feel every inch the king of his mortgaged split-level by giving him Christmas gifts of casualwear and sleepwear in which to spend his leisure hours.

EVEN though business clothes are as comfortable as sportswear these days, there are far better things to wear for complete relaxation. There is a psychological lift in the pre-dinner shift to casual to or loungewear. Most fellows sort of shed the cares and worries of the business day when they doff their business suits.

They feel right when they stretch out on the couch or easy chair when wearing a sport shirt and a fresh-looking pair of slacks that will retain their fresh look because of fabrics loomed of blends of wool and man-made fibers.

Or, he may be an all-out type of guy that will go for some of those new pajamas, so right for viewing TV and trim enough to excuse him from scampering should unexpected guests drop in.

CORDUROY IS very popular in relaxable clothes this season. There are jackets and slacks of corduroy as well as corduroy suits. All make great at-home garments and can be worn out of doors as well.

Those knit shirts that scored so heavily with the masculine population last summer, have cold weather counterparts that help to make loafing an art.

Elks to Hold Annual Yule Party for Kids

The El Rey Theater in Walnut Creek will be "jumping" on December 23 at 10 a.m.

And most of the "jump" will come from the children, of which there will be plenty, because that is the day and the time when the Walnut Creek Elks Club holds its annual Elks Children's Christmas Party.

There will be lots and lots of movies, you know, the kind that kids like—and of course, Santa Claus will be there too. How could he miss with all those children gathered in one spot.

The Elks must know by today how many children will be attending, so Elk member are asked to contact the club if they have not already done so.

Your local merchant shops at home too. When you support him, the money stays in the community and we all benefit.

Shop At Stores You Know, Warns Business Bureau

Christmas shoppers were reminded today by the Better Business Bureau that there are unfortunately a few tricksters who prey upon them with questionable and fraudulent schemes designed to capitalize on the Yuletide Spirit of Goodwill and suggests that now is the time to become familiar with some of them to avoid financial loss and disappointment and embarrassment on Christmas Day.

The BBB states the chief danger is the lure of phony bargains. In this connection Bureau Manager B. Charles Wansley says:

"PEOPLE CAN protect themselves from phony bargains by remembering that the test of value is not what the article used to cost, but what it costs today compared with similar articles at other stores."

Wansley cites another consistent source of complaint at this time each year by recalling the advertisements which offer inflatable rubber toys which to the untrained eye appear to be designed in the shape of giant animals but which in reality are nothing but a few ordinary balloons with pictures of the animals imprinted on their sides.

The lure of this type of advertising, according to the BBB, is the low price for seemingly big values.

To insure a happier Christmas this year the Bureau suggests:

1. Be sure to trade only with concerns known to be reliable.

2. BE SURE that the articles purchased are exactly what you want as to size, color and other requirements, or deal with those concerns which give the privilege of exchange.

3. Remember that some stores follow the policy that "all sales are final." They will not and are not legally obligated to make exchanges, refund money, or give credit slips.

The BBB also admonishes the public not to remain silent when duped by fictitious prices. It urges people to write to the Better Business Bureau and send copies of the letter to the newspaper or broadcasting station which carries the ad.

Ties Are Still The Top Gift

Among the reasons for the popularity of neckties are the facts that a man never has too many, they present no size problem and they are among the most personal gifts that can be offered, whether to a friend or to a close relative.

Just a little thought in the selection of gift ties will make them mementos of your thoughtfulness as well as a testament to your good taste. The first thing to remember, notes the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, is that many of the old ideas about the selection of gift ties no longer apply.

Young men do not necessarily like bright neckwear, nor do more mature men unanimously go for the subdued type of four-in-hand.

There are even divisions of tastes within the several groups of dressers which can be broken down into three major categories —namely, the average business or professional man, the Ivy League type, and the fashion leaders who like to be "first."

The average business or professional man is apt to vary his selection of neckwear.

Students Help Pay For School

On a resolution offered by their student body president, Holly Borowiak, students at Springhill School voted to conduct a drive to help rebuild the bombed schoolhouse in Clinton, Tenn.

Student body representatives discussed the whys and wherefores of combating ignorance and prejudice and voted unanimously to return to their classroom constituents to take an opinion poll there.

A special student council meeting was called two days later. Response to classroom discussions was enthusiastic and Operation Dimes for Clinton, Tenn., was begun.

During the following week council representatives visited each classroom each day to collect any dimes the children wished to contribute. Representatives who conducted the drive and made it a completely student run activity from beginning to end were Laurel Stanley, Jeanne Olsen, Kathy West, Stanley Kern, Kay Long, Jim Lapsley, Richard Guadagni, Peggy Schell, John Larson, Caryl Stevens, Karen Wentzel, Tom Fitzsimmons, Marlou Vanderbrugge, Bill McKenna and Ken Short.

At the end of the week student body treasurer, Jim Rodman, proudly wrote out a check for $46.50 and mailed it to the Clinton Schoolhouse Fund. A bond of friendship and helpfulness stretched from Lafayette, California to Clinton, Tennessee.
